『Hey, Waffle! Do you wanna go somewhere and play?』

Cetus Obaa-chan's daughter, Kuu, who has recently become a part of our family and also a friend of mine asked.

『Wafu? Where should we play?』

Even though I wanted to head to the bath and look for Myne.....

『Kyuu! Obviously, a big adventure right!』

An adventure? Weren't we going somewhere to play? As usual, she is rather sudden with these ideas.

In the first place, what do we do for our big adventure?

『What do we do in this 'big adventure'?』

『We'll go somewhere not far from here because Myne Onii-sama would be worried about us, so let's go somewhere closeby!』

Somewhere near....for an adventure? But well, it's good to have a change of pace every once in a while.

But, where does this Kuu want to take me?

I'm worried that she isn't telling me where, oh well..... guess I have to give up on going into the bath.....

『.....Okay, I'll tag along.』

When I say that, Kuu's tail was wagging left to right while flying around mid air.

She looks so happy, and looking at her makes me happy too!

Unconsciously I started wagging my tail too.

『Kyu Kyu, Kyuuu!』

『Before we head out and play, let's tell Myne first! If we suddenly disappear, Myne would be worried.』

After saying that, I went to look for Myne, and Kuu obediently followed behind.

『Wafu~ Wafu~♪』 『Kyu~ Kyu~ Kyu~, Kyuu~!』 『Wa~fu Wafu♪』 『Kyu~u Kyu, Kyuuu♪』

We sang(?) while running in the house. Which of course, is to find Myne.

『Hm? If it isn't Waffle and Kuu, what are you doing? Both of you look so happy.』

At the corridor, we have discovered a Sylphy! Myne's wife.

Sylphy is the Princess of this country, and also in good terms with Kuu.

And similar to me, she really really really loves Myne!

Plus, Sylphy doesn't get mad when I sit on top of her head, and she would even hug me!

That's why I love Sylphy too!

.....However, compare to Sylphy and Myne's head, she loses to Myne, just a little.

Since she has more hair than Myne, it was kinda in the way when I'm sitting on her head.

That's why I have only sat on top of Myne's head recently.

On the other hand, Kuu would always float around Sylphy.

Because Sylphy and Kuu are bath buddies, she has come to love Sylphy as well.

I answered Sylphy back energetically like how Myne does it.

Myne also says that being energetic is good! Again I was excited and started wagging my tail again.

『I am going to go and play with Kuu! We are good boys and girls, so we're gonna tell Myne that we are going out!』

Then, Sylphy told us that 『Danna-sama is currently at the Dismantling Hut』.

Slightly further away from this house is the Dismantling Hut, I would frequent to that place to help Myne out.

Myne would always tear apart the skills of the monsters that he'd gotten from various Dungeons inside the hut.

And it is my job to keep the monsters in the storage bag where time stays still which Myne made for me.

There are so many things inside the storage bag, so occasionally I would follow Myne to the meat shop to sell some away.

Do you know! ? The meat shop is not just a place to sell things you know! The Grandpa would always give me some leftover meat for me to enjoy.

Of course, I will never forget to thank the Grandpa for giving me meat!

「Wafu !」

I would bark and lift my right paws up to the Grandpa, and he doesn't just give me the same meat, he would give me various delicious meat to eat.

That one time when we went there, I ate pigs meat, which was really delicious that I immediately asked Myne to buy more for me.

However, Kuu and Amy-san doesn't really like pigs meat that much.

.....I find it odd even though it is so delicious.

Since they don't really like it, I would help eat their portions.

Aisha also said that it's bad to leave any leftover food.

.....Ah, this is bad. If I continue to think of these, we will never be able to go on an adventure. Let's hurry to the Dismantling Hut!

『Myne! Kuu and I are going to go and play!』

After running to the hut and raised my voice, Myne had a look of surprise as he turned to face us.

『Waffle, by going to play.....only you and Kuu?』

『Kuu said that she wants to go on an adventure, so I tag along.』

After Myne heard what we said, he thought for a moment.

『I'm worried that only the two of you are going, so I'll follow along.』

Aah, I knew Myne would end up saying that. How is Kuu gonna respond?

『Onii-sama! It's alright! Me and Waffle are full fledge Divine Beasts!』

Hearing what Kuu said, Myne sighed with a 「Haa.....」.

『Well, we can talk telepathically....so I guess it's fine? If something dangerous happens, immediately contact me okay?

Also, if only the two of you are going, take this with you.』

As Myne said that, he took out a bright green cloth from the storage bag.

『What is this?』

『This is, a certificate that signifies that the both of you are my pets. If you have this, then I'm sure you won't be caught.

However, I assume that Waffle knows this but, there will be bad guys. So please be careful okay.』

I'm sure Myne was talking about what happened when we first met.

That's right, there are bad guys around. If we aren't careful, we would be tricked by those bad guys.

.....Since Kuu isn't familiar with these situations, I would have to be the one to look out for her.

『Wafu! I understand. I will do my best to protect her!』

In the end, the place that we are going to play is just the forest outside of the city.

From what Myne said, that place is where he fought against the Orc King.

Since Myne defeated it, there aren't any powerful monsters inhabiting that forest.

Since Myne doesn't want us to wander around the city, he offered to send us all the way to the forest.

『Then, I'm heading off!』

After reporting to Myne, Kuu and I both looked at the familiar black vortex.

『Wafu!』 『Kyu Kyuu!』

We energetically jumped inside the black vortex!

After passing through the black vortex, what appeared was a vast forest.

『Wafu! We have reached the forest!!!』

『Alright, Waffle! Let's start our adventure!』

With that we hurriedly ran into the forest.

Being pulled by Kuu, we ran straight into the forest.

Even though Myne has told us that there aren't any strong Demons residing in this forest, being negligent is forbidden!

I will be the one who protects Kuu! I have made a promise with Myne!

While minding our surroundings, we defeated some large caterpillars and goats.

Aah, it's as what Myne said, there really are no strong Demons around.

.....If it's around this level, I'm sure I don't have to be that worried?

『Kyu Kyu!? Onii-sama, look at that!』

Un? Seems like Kuu found something. Looking at where Kuu's looking....It seems like a human guy has fallen down!

A small like bird was protecting that human by battling a goat.

『Let's help them!』

I said that and Kuu nodded as well, as we hurry ahead for battle.

『Wafu, we're here to help!』

As I talked to the little bird, it replied with 『Cyun cyun, thanks!』 followed by a sigh of relief.

『Bubble Shower, Kyuu!』

While I was talking, Kuu has already begun fighting with the goat.

Kuu's skill 【Bubble Shower】 hit the goat and with that it fell to the ground.

It was rather dull, and I could see that Kuu had a unsatisfied look on her face, but it can't be help.

Myne did say from the beginning that they were only weak Demons around.

Rather, the problem right now is the little bird.

It looks like its not badly injured.....its yellow in colour, and it has the same cloth that we have wrap on our body.

Yes, the cloth is prove that we are registered as Myne's pet.

Which means, this little bird is that fallen human's pet?

『Thanks for helping cyun! I'm a sparrow-type demon, and my name is Cyunsuke!』

That person lying asleep is my master Cyun!』

So I was right! It's my first time seeing, is he tamed?

『Kyu, why is your Master asleep?』

Right, even though Cyunsuke was desperately warding off the enemies, his master is just there sleeping, he can't even act like a proper master!

If we weren't here, I'm sure Cyunsuke would've died!

『My Master has been hit by the Goat's skill, hence why he's asleep cyun.....』

Oh I see, then it can't be help. I was about to bite him to pieces if it was really the case but I'll forgive him this time.

Afterwards, Cyunsuke flew towards his sleeping master, and pecked on his cheeks.

『Master, please wake up cyun!』

Even though Cyunsuke was desperately calling his master up, it seems like he isn't waking up anytime soon because he didn't want to hurt his master while pecking on him.

While that was happening, Kuu was fed up with the human not waking up, and attacked him with her tail.

「Ouuch!!!! Wh, what's happening!? Am I dead!?!」

『Master, Master, you're certainly alive cyun, and these two here saved us cyun. You better thank them cyun.』

Though Cyunsuke and his master was talking, it seemed like he doesn't understand us.

I don't why but I feel exhausted already....I just want to hurry back and take a bath.

For now, let's just leave Cyunsuke be and ask Kuu to go back.

『Kuu, there are only weaklings here, I'm already tired, let's go back.』

『Kyu, that's true. Let's go back, and take a bath with Sylphy.』

Deciding to head back, we wanted to meet up with Myne first, when suddenly the human that we helped started shouting.

「Wh, what are these Demons! I've never seen those two before! Hehehe, it seems like my luck has turned.」

Nn? What is he even saying.

「If I can tame them, my position in the Clan would definitely rise! That's decided...take this 【Tame】!」

Having no idea what he was saying, it seems like he used some sort of skill.

【Tame】....Wait what!? He's trying to tame us!?

Even though it doesn't have any effect against us Divine Beast, but I'm not feeling happy.

「Gurururu.」

Even though we just saved you, what is this treatment! You lots!

I growled at him while being menacing, then Cyunsuke suddenly flew in between us and broke the dismay.

『Master, Master, you can't! YOU CAN'T cyun—!』

Ugh, this useless person is his master.

Can't be help, be glad that Cyunsuke was the one who saved your life.

Activating my 【Demon Eyes of Gravity】, I sank the area around him.

The surrounding was shaking and making noises, and Cyunsuke's master went down to his knees.

「Th, this is, my body feels heavy.....And why can't I 【Tame】 them!?!」

『Ma, Master—!』

Cyunsuke panicked, and flew to the rude human.

Aah, you can't! You'll be affected by the 【Demon Eyes of Gravity】 too.

Being pressed down by an invisible weight, even though I'm using as little power as possible, a small body like Cyunsuke would probably be crushed from that much weight.

I hurriedly stopped my 【Demon Eyes of Gravity】.

『Wafu! Cyunsuke, move aside. This skill, won't kill, that human.』

As I said that, Cyunsuke hurriedly break, and moved a distance away from the human.

「Wh, what is this even! Using this kind of skill, this isn't some ordinary wolf! I will definitely make it mine!」

.....This human, really pisses me off, he needs to be disciplined.

Since Cyunsuke moved out of the way, time to use 【Demon Eyes of Gravity】 again.

「Gaaa, not again!!! What the heck is going on!」

『Kuu, let's go!』

Thus, we went further into the forest.

Yes, we are heading to the place where Myne used to fight against the Orc•

King.

Moving behind us was Cyunsuke.

「I'm so sorry cyun! I'm really grateful that you helped us——!」

Yeah, Cyunsuke is a good guy.

We turned around and he shook our hands.

.....That's Kuu's tail though.....

『Myne, Myne, we are heading to the Orc's settlement! Please come pick us up from there!』

Using telepathy to communicate, Myne immediately replied.

『Alright! I'll immediately come!』

We're really glad that we're Myne's tamed pet! It'll be troublesome if it's someone like that person just now.

I'm truly thankful to Myne! Wafu!

Alright, I can see the Orc's settlement! It seems like Myne is already there! Sylphy and Aisha is also there!

『Kuu, Myne and the rest is here!』

『Onii-sama——! Kuu is, Kuu is, back from her adventures——!』

With that, we went back home with our “family”.

Now then. It's time for my fun bath! Wafufu!!

『Master.....』

Proofread: Shiro

Well then, since Captain Franz has returned, let's get down to the thing that I just remembered.

Yes, the thing was a request from King-sama to try and create a Teleporting Door.

Logically speaking, if I were to create it like how I invented the time stopping storage bag, it'll somehow work.

Alright, let's review it from there.

I brought a small pouch that I purchased from a general store from my room.

「Hm? Danna-sama....what are you doing?」

『Myne, good luck! I'll follow you!』

『Kyu Kyuu! Onii-sama, good luck!』

In the living room, there were Sylphy, Waffle and Kuu who were gathering around me.

Since I've received their support, I must not fail my task!

Previously, I tried reaching inside the pouch bag while activating 【Unique Magic・Spacetime】.

At that time, the usual black hole to move around did not appear. Instead, the opening of the pouch bag seemed to be slightly distorted.

And then, all I had to do was imagine a huge space within the pouch bag and now to strongly imagine it to stop time from inside.

.....Hm? It felt like it took more time to create it than now.

Somehow, it felt like the image that was floating on my head was gradually sucked into my pouch bag.

Previously when I tried experimenting with it, it didn't take long for it to work. If I'm not mistaken, it only took around 5 minutes.

Compared to right now, it has been more than 15 minutes since I've started working on it.

I'm kinda worried now.

「Hm, hmm, this is weird.....」

I sighed, and Waffle noticed something.

『Myne, I remember that you collected a bunch of Wind Magic inside the pouch bag.』

Wind Magic!? I can't believe I've forgotten about it? Geez, I didn't know!

『Onii-sama, could it be.....that the Wind Seed, is the reason behind why it's not working?』

Kuu blatantly spoke the truth.

Aah, that's right.....I do remember pasting 1 Wind Seed(Large) onto myself.

Which meant? That the Wind Seeds that were stored inside the pouch bag has been absorbing the huge amounts of magic just now!?

「.....Aah, it worked.」

Whilst thinking about Kuu's speculation, it seems that the storage bag has been completed.

Name: Myne • Fortuna

LV: 63

Race: Hume

Gender: Male

Age: 15 years old

Occupation: Hunter

【Skill Seed】

None

.....Ah, the Wind Seed(Large) disappeared.

「Danna-sama, what is going on exactly?」

Sylphy asked me with a clueless expression.

「Hmm, as of right now, I have made a storage bag.....a storage bag without time flowing inside.」

「.....Eh?」

Well, I'm sure she's surprised. I remember hearing from someone before that storage bags with time not flowing inside are objects made only by Alchemists.

Only the Queen could request such item to be made by a remarkable Alchemist.

By Sylphy's standards, only that person could create such item.

「I tried putting 【Unique Magic・Spacetime】 in a different use, and this was the result of it.....」

.....Well then, compared to the storage bag that I created previously, what sort of difference does it have?

I do not know how much magic that 1 Wind Seed(Large) had in itself, all I know is that my magic was poured into it.

Maybe the capacity has increased?

However, I can't be ascertain because I have nothing big to put inside it to compare.

As for the capacity, I think I can only confirm it once I explore the dungeon.

For now, let's see whether I've successfully implemented the time stopping ability inside the storage bag.

Similar to before, I took a hot tea that was just made and place it into the storage bag.

Sylphy who was watching from the start sighed.

「Thinking about it again, Danna-sama is not only good at fighting, but also good at everything else.....」

「Uhhh, I think this was really just me being lucky.

First of all, the skills from the Orc King was out of this world.

If used in battle, it would boast an unrivaled performance, which makes it unreasonable to fight against.」

「However, the 'unrivaled performance' has been taken by Danna-sama, am I right? So the one most amazing is Danna-sama.」

I'm sure Sylphy said that to cheer me up, but I don't feel as though I'm great or anything.....

While chatting away with Sylphy, almost half an hour has passed, time flies when you're having fun.....

Thus, I took out the tea that was placed inside the storage bag.

The heat was still hot to the touch, and steam was coming out from it, which means the time stopping mechanism is working as intended.

However, it still doesn't explain the Wind Magic, I thought for a fact that it would have some sort of Wind attributes put into it.

Looking at the tea to its limit, it seemed like there weren't any sort of attributes or effects.

『Waffle, Kuu, do you feel any Wind Magic from this tea?』

『No, I don't feel anything!』

『Wafu, it's the same before you put it inside the bag, no difference!』

.....Alright, if the two of them have said that, then there is no mistaken.

For now, let's leave the Wind Seeds.

In the meantime, the previous review has been completed.

.....From now on, is the real thing.

Using 【Unique Magic・Spacetime】 on the door of the living room, let's try to connect the door to the Dismantling Room.

Touching the door, and similar to how I did with the pouch bag using 【Unique Magic・Spacetime】, I imagine my destination while pouring in magic.

.....It's impossible. I do not feel the connecting response.

I wonder what it was, it felt like the image that I was thinking would scatter around and couldn't be fixed.

Maybe, it isn't just the image that I have to put.

「.....I can't, the image can't be established properly. It felt like something else was needed.」

.....I thought that my theory was close to what I wanted it to be.

I swear that I've connected the door to the image perfectly which tied to the door through 【Unique Magic・Spacetime】.

However, it felt like it wasn't enough....Right, I feel like with just my power, I can't push through....

Eh? If it's only me.....!?

Aah, maybe the answer lies within that 【Skill Seed】!

Maybe with the lack of power, I can substitute it with the 【Skill Seed】.

Alright, let's test it out immediately.

Just now I was using 【Wind Seed(Large)】, let's try the 【Water Seed(Large)】.

I took out a pebble from the storage bag with 【Water Seed(Large)】 pasted on it.

Then, I 【Cut】 the 【Water Seed (Large)】 and pasted it onto myself.

Alright, let's challenge it again! Let's hope it goes well this time!

Again, I activated 【Unique Magic・Spacetime】 on the door I touched.

『Waffle, how is it? Is the Wind Magic being absorbed into the door?』

『Ou! It is~』

Alright, now to properly think of the image in my mind.

.....1 minute, 5 minutes, 10 minutes have passed. Then, after almost 15 minutes....the magic flowing through stopped, and the work has been completed.

「.....Danna-sama.」

Sylphy gulped in anxiety, as she called out to me.

「.....I think, it has worked?」

Yes, there was a certain response, and based on my experience, this response indicates that I was successful.

While being nervous, I held the door knob.....and swung the door open.

The view from the door was.....

「Alright! It's a success!」

The scenery seen from the door was the Dismantling Room. In other words, this door has become a Teleporting Door as planned!

「.....Hey, Danna-sama.....Do we have to leave this room via the Dismantling Room from now on?」

.....Ah, shit.....it seems like we can't get out of this room and into the corridor.

As per what Sylphy pointed out, I just realized that we won't be able to get back into the corridor.

Panicking, I immediately overwrite the door back to where it was supposed to be.

「.....Fuu, I completely did not notice it at all.....This, I must seriously think about how to handle it before creating the teleporting door.」

I have to be more careful about it as my 【Skill Seed (Large)】 for water has been used up for the overwrite.

「Let me go and replenish them now.」

I said that as I used 【Unique Magic・Spacetime】 and set the location to the Dungeon of the World Tree.

『I'll follow too !』

『I'm following as well! Wait up Onii-sama~』

After I jumped into the black hole, both Waffle and Kuu tagged along behind.

『I'll immediately come back, so I wanted you guys to stay at home.』

As I said that, they answered with 『It's better if we follow, it'll be even faster! Wafu!』

Well, that's true.

『Myne! I thought of something good!』

Hm? Since Waffle asked me at a time like this, I'm sure it's good news.

I wonder what he thought of, I'm looking forward to it!

『I'll bring all the Demons from over there, then bring them here and defeat them all at once.』

I see, since we have adequately good skills, it's easier to round them up and defeat them with wide range magic.

『After we defeat them all, what would happen....wouldn't the demons disappear?』

『Nope, that won't happen! Onii-sama.

The dungeon will just gather more magic and the demons will appear again!』

Hmm, I kinda get it but not really as well.....but I guess that's just how it is.

Though, as to how they obtain the 【Skill Seed】 is something I wouldn't know, and it sounded different from what Kuu said.

Well, since Kuu said that the Demons would gather immediately again, Waffle's strategy might just work.

『Then, can I leave that to Waffle?』

『I got it! Leave it to me!』

Spinning his tail like crazy, Waffle happily ran through the huge rooms.

Then, after waiting for a moment....

『Wafu~~~~~♪』

A mountain of Mandrake and Crayfish were aggroed towards Waffle while he was running towards us.

「Uwaa, I wonder how many are there, this is a little.....」

With so many that I can't count just by looking, I could plunder an abundance of 【Skill Seeds】.

It looks like Waffle.....is enjoying himself....

Alright, time to collect some skills!

『Waffle, I'll create a black hole with 【Unique Magic・Spacetime】 slightly further from you so jump right in!』

After saying that, Waffle replied with 『Wafu!』 and immediately took action.

Confirming that Waffle has jumped into the black hole, it was my turn.

Then, activating 【Magic of Extremity】, I launched 【Wide Area Magic・Maximum Fire】 and 【Wide Area Magic・Maximum Earth】 at the Demons that gathered.

A violent explosion reverberated all over the area, and the Demons that Waffle gathered were cleanly wiped out.

『Wafu! Did it go well!?』

Behind me was Waffle asking.

『Yeap, Waffle's strategy was a huge success!』

Name: Pebbles

【Skill Seeds】

【Wind Seed (Large)】 (9)

【Wind Seed】 (4)

【Water Seed (Large)】 (7)

【Water Seed】 (1)

So 49 Mandrakes, and 36 Crayfishes.

That's amazing, to gather almost 100 of them.

For now, this should be enough! I'm glad that I brought along Waffle and Kuu.

『Alright, let's go back!』

When we returned home, Aisha went to me and asked.

「Hey, Myne-kun....I was wondering, can't you 【Cut】 and paste something on the door so as to not overwrite it?」

.....I see, now that I think about it, I have not appraised the completed storage bag and the door.

I wonder what it would display.

【Spacetime Door】: Opening this door would lead you to 【Fortuna Family's first floor corridor】.

.....Not good, the door has been renamed to “Spacetime Door”.

By the way, when you appraise a regular door, this is what results in.

【Door】: Just a regular door. It is used to get in and out of places. (You dumb fuuu) 「Aisha, even though you had an idea but it looks like it doesn't work..... It seems like the door itself has changed to a different item called “Spacetime Door”.」

「Another item huh....it sounds similar to how Alchemy works.」

Aah, it does sound like it.

If that's the case, I wonder if it's possible to do some spacetime related Alchemy so as long as 【Skill Seed】 is available?

This is something to look into..

I feel like I could create some amazing things with spacetime for weapons and equipments.

If I have the time, I should research about it.

「After this, let's head to the palace!」

Obviously, the motive is to report to King-sama that the Teleporting Door has succeeded.

When I returned home and drank tea with my family in the living room, I told everyone about it and Sylphy said that she wanted to go as well.

Well, since Airy came last time, she might be anxious as there wasn't any news, so she wants to visit her.

Aah, if I'm not mistaken she did say she wanted to enter into our Clan.

.....In the end, could she convince King-sama?

It's almost time for the Clan house to be completed, so it's necessary to check on the situation of Airy.

With that being said, I decided that I should introduce Kuu as well, and thus the final people who are accompanying me was Sylphy, Waffle, and Kuu.

As for Waffle, as usual he got on top of my head and said 「I'll follow as well!」, well it's not like he has anything particular to do so why not.

「Well then, we're at King-sama's place....but should we meet with him now?」

「Father is probably busy at the moment, and even if it's us, I don't think we can meet with him right now.」

Before this, the maid-san did say it was by chance that King-sama had the time to meet with me.

Let's book an appointment for now.

Thinking along the lines of that, let's push the bell that Airy has taught me in the past.

「Danna-sama, for now you should take a rest here, I'll go and see Airy right now.

If you've returned and I'm still not back, since I'm also heading to Father's place, let's meet up on the way there.」

「Alright, say hi to Airy for me!」

After saying that, Sylphy kissed me lightly on my cheeks and went out of the room.

『Onii-sama, who is this Airy?』

Aah, that's right! Kuu has yet to meet any of the royal family, including Airy.

『Uhhh, it's Sylphy's little sister, and the second princess of this country.』

After explaining it like so, Kuu was delighted as she spun around in the air.

『S, Sylphy Onee-sama's little sister you say! I certainly have to meet with her then!』

Looking at Kuu while smiling, I heard someone knocking on the door.

『.....Pardon for interrupting, I was told that I was to come and see Myne-sama.』

Aah, it was the maid-san's voice that took care of me before!

Well, that's kinda obvious. It's the only maid who knows that I can freely go in and out of here.

.....However, King-sama. What did you exactly say to her about me?

「Ah, yes! It's Myne. I just came here just now!」

As I answered, she quietly opened the door while saying 「Please excuse me」, and came into my room.

「Welcome, please come.....Eh?」

After bowing to me as her form of courtesy, she raised her head and.....her movement stopped when she saw Kuu.

「.....Aah, Etto....this here is my new family pet, Kuu. Please get along with her.」

As I introduced Kuu to the maid, Kuu gladly cried 「Kyuu!」 as she float around the air.

Then, while Kuu was passionately floating around, on top of my head, Waffle cried 「Wafu!」 while raising his right paw.

「.....Haah, is that so, please to make your acquaintance.

Sorry for being rude, but if I may ask, what kind of message do you want to convey for today?」

Wow. She's quick to recover! As expected of a professional maid!

「Well, I'm here to report to King-sama! My wife has came along and has already went and meet up with Princess Airy.」

「So Princess Sylphid is here as well, I understand.

Please wait here for a while, as I will make an appointment for your next meeting with the King.」

The maid said that, bowed then left the room.

Well then.....what should we do to kill time?

「Airy, it's me! Syphid~」

After hearing a knock from my door, I could hear Syphy Onee-sama's voice from behind the door.

「Onee-sama!」

I hurriedly ran and open the door.

....However, because I was in a hurry, I couldn't breathe properly and my chest ended up hurting.

That time when I went to Onee-sama's place to stay overnight, the bath I took really helped with my condition for awhile.

However, after some time passed, since then my body has returned to being weak again.

I quickly opened the door and let Onee-sama come into my room.

「.....! Airy what happened! Haven't I told you many times not to run!」

「.....I'm sorry Onee-sama, I was excited when Onee-sama came to visit, so I unknowingly ran.....」

Sylphy Onee-sama looked at me with a worried face.

I'm sorry, I didn't mean to make Onee-sama worried.

「Here Airy, hold onto me.」

Onee-sama reached her hands out to me, then holding her hands, I started to breath deeply.

Huu, Haa, Huu, Haa.....

Fortunately, the breathing helped calmed me down. With that, Onee-sama won't have to worry about me anymore.

「Alright, I'm already fine! Again, I apologize for having Onee-sama constantly worrying about me.」

「Don't mind it, as long as you don't go overboard.....so as to not make me worry again.」

Aah, it's the usual kind Onee-sama. That's why, I want to quickly cure this weak body of mine as soon as possible so Onee-sama won't have to be sad anymore.

From what Brother-In-Law Myne mentioned, my body is said to have less magic power stored inside than others.

And because of that, it results in this weak body of mine.

On the contrary, if it doesn't go below a certain amount, the condition wouldn't get any worse, so it seemed that there is nothing to worry about....

.....However, even if I know the reason, there doesn't seem to be a method to cure it as of right now.

But, because of Brother-In-Law Myne, we were able to identify the symptom.

As for the method of treatment.....As long as I stay with Brother-In-Law Myne and Onee-sama in the Fortuna family, I can use the bath anytime!

As to why the bath can help treat my body, I wonder why?

The bath, isn't an ordinary bath at all. If I'm not mistaken, the water used in the bath is specially made.

Actually, the water was created by Brother-In-Law's skill, so he is the one who is supplying the water.

Whereas the method of constantly making the water temperature to be high.....Probably has to do with the huge amounts of magic being used to sustain the heat, which then makes it a magical water.

Even with my body being diagnosed as a chronic magic deficiency, as long as I enter this bath, my insufficient magic will temporarily be restored.

Actually the other day, when I went to stay over at Brother-In-Law's house, I was able to confirm the extent of the effect.

That's why I requested to be in the Clan that was made by Brother-In-Law and Onee-sama.

If I can be a part of the Clan, I can go to Lucas and stay whenever I want. Which means, I can go and take a bath everyday!

When I spoke of this idea to Brother-In-Law, he told me that he'll create a bath inside the palace.

However, my motive is to be able to move around freely, so as to get back the time I spent inside my room.

If I achieve that, I can finally get out of the palace and enjoy my youth by venturing around happily.

That's why, when Brother-In-Law suggested that idea of creating a bath inside the palace, I was troubled by it.

I rather go to his house and be treated in his bathroom.

Fortunately, Brother-In-Law Myne is as kind as Onee-sama too. That's why, I cried in front of Brother-In-Law.

「.....I wonder if Brother-In-Law hates me ?」

.....After that, I was given a condition before being able to join the Clan.

That condition is...."Get the approval from Father and Mother".

Since both my parents spoils me lots, I'm sure the condition will immediately be approved....However, I received an unexpected result.

「No. I'll never approve.」

「I too will not allow it.」

When I first asked the two of them, my parents immediately answered as such.

The time it took for them to answer me was exactly 0.5 seconds. It was truly an instantaneous answer.

「Why not! ?If I can stay at Brother-In-Law's place, I can then treat my body!」

I unconsciously raised my voice towards my parents.

「It does sound like an attractive offer. However, the treatment is only temporary, is that right?

If that's the case, what happens if your condition becomes poor again? It's different from being in the palace, there's no maid to help you, you know that right?

What's more, if I were to ask Myne to create the bath inside the palace, then the problem would be settled.」

Kuh, it's the same as what Brother-In-Law said....

After that, I tried persuading them several times, but it was to no avail, both Father and Mother stubbornly shook their heads.

Aah, I can't....I unconsciously dived too deep in my thoughts.

「Oh no, it's nothing Onee-sama, I was just reminded of something bad.....」

「Fumu? What seemed to have happened? If you're okay with it, you can discuss it with me?」

I can't let Onee-sama worry again, I have to somehow divert the topic! !

「.....It's really okay, Onee-sama! Moreover, why are you here today? It's rare to suddenly visit here.」

「.....Is that so? Well, if you don't want to say it, I won't force you.

As for why I'm here today, it's because Danna-sama had something to report to Father, so I tagged along and visit my cute sister Airy.

Of course, the Clan House is soon to be constructed, so did you ask for permission with Father and Mother?

And also, since you didn't talk about it, I've gotten worried about it, so how was it? Did Father and Mother approved of it?」

It was exactly what I was thinking just now. Whether it's coincidental or not, but as expected of Onee-sama.

「.....As I expect, Onee-sama. To be honest, I was thinking about what you were saying.」

If that's the case, let's talk about it with Onee-sama. You never know, maybe she can come up with a brilliant idea!

「Nn, I imagine that the two of them were really against it right?」

「Well, both Father and Mother are really overprotective of Airy.

I can somehow imagine it, because of how frail your body is since young, I could sort of understand why they had to do it.」

I don't need Onee-sama to tell me, I already know!

Wait that's not it, I want my Onee-sama to find a way to let me join the Clan!

「Does Onee-sama have any ideas?」

「Fumu.....I don't have an idea, but I'm sure I can solve it.」

There's no idea but it'll be solved!? What does that mean!?

If there's a way like that, I would like Onee-sama to tell me!!

「O, onee-sama!! What does that mean!? Do you have a way to convince Otou-sama and Okaa-sama!?」

「Yeah, depending on what Danna-sama tells Father, that'll decide it. I'm gonna head back to Danna-sama's place, does Airy wanna follow?」

Brother-In-Law!? What sort of conversation is he gonna say?

Whatever it is, if I can join the Clan, of course I'll follow along!

「Yes! I would like you to take me along as well.」

Different from what happened back when I was trying to report the Clan's name, it looks like King-sama is kinda busy right now. So I guess I'll wait inside this room for the time being.

I heard that he is listening to the reports of the request issued through the Adventurer's Guild.

As for the contents of the report, I wasn't told about it, so I just have to pass the time.

Surely the talk right now is extremely important.

Now that I think about it, Aisha was also part of the adventurer's guild, so I wonder if she had a request from the royal family too?

While sitting on a chair and thinking whilst balancing with just two of the chair's legs, a knock came from my door.

Aah, is it time? Was what I thought as I stood up and gently opened the door.

Then, the ones that went inside the room wasn't who I thought it was. It wasn't the maid, but Sylphy and Airy.

Aah, seems like the both of them have already finished their business.

「Danna-sama, I have returned. Since you're still here, it means that you have not met Father? Well, it could not be helped as Father is busy all the time.」

「Yes, it seems like the request he sent for the Adventurer's Guild has arrived, and he is currently listening on the report.」

I've explained to Sylphy what I heard from Maid-san about the reason why our audience with King-sama is delayed, but for some reason her eyes widen and raised her voice.

「.....Wha!? A report from the Guild!?!」

What? What is it!? Was what I asked as the shocked Sylphy regained her composure and told me about it.

From what she said, there is a possibility that the Demon country is starting a war against other countries.

It is a ridiculous rumour, but if that rumour turns out to be true, then it'll be way worse than you can ever imagine.

Whether the rumours were true or not, just to be sure, the country has started requesting the Adventure Guild to help out.

The request was made back when me and Sylphy gotten married, and it seemed that the timing of returning back to the capital to report this matter was also good timing.

.....I didn't know that the Demon country is that far away.

「Depending on the situation, we may have to help out too.」

Huh? Wait a second.....the Demon Country's invasion? Hm? Where have I heard of that before.....

Aah! I remembered! ! ! That's right! It was at that time!

It was during the time when we were riding behind Jormungand-sama's back towards the "Dungeon Prison", Jormungand-sama told us about it!

Didn't we saw a town that was invaded and destroyed!

「Sylphy! That rumour is true! I heard from Jormungand-sama that there was a new King being elected in the Demon country!」

「Wha-?!Da, Danna-sama, is what you're saying real!」

「I'm not mistaken! Even I was there to witness the buildings being burned, stacked corpses, groups of Orcs.....it was truly a hell-like scene!」

Listening from her own Danna reporting something so unreasonable, Sylphy could only open her mouth wide.

Given the timing of the request to the Guild, we know that the Demon country has a considerable distance from the Orcus Kingdom of where we live.

Indeed, there was a memory that took a while to remember when we were moving behind Jormungand-sama's back who was flying at high speed.

Which meant that there is still quite a distance before it comes to our kingdom.....

After talking to Sylphy about it, we heard another knock from the door.

「Myne-sama, I apologize for making you wait but Your Majesty is now awaiting for your presence, please follow me to.....Ara? I see that Hime-samas are also present right now.」

Now that she saw Sylphy and Airy who wasn't with me just now, Maid-san was slightly surprised, but she immediately fixed herself.

Yeap, a professional Maid indeed.

「Well then, let us go. Does the two Hime-sama want to follow as well?」

「Obviously !」

Sylphy, and Airy the double princesses(Even though Sylphy was once one) answered, then the Maid said 「Alright, let us go together then.」 and left the room.

Waffle was still on top of my head, while Kuu was floating beside Sylphy's shoulder as we followed along.

Then, Airy's eyes opened wide and spoke.

「.....O, Onee-sama....Th, what is that pink kid floating near your shoulder?」

Airy was pointing at Kuu, and with a scared voice asked Sylphy.

「Hm? Aah, this is the Divine Beast Cetus-sama's daughter, Kuu.」

「C, Cetus-sama you say!?!」

Yes, a normal reaction indeed.....I'm sure King-sama and Brother-In-Law-san would also have the same reactions.

The whale race isn't really a well known race after all, what's more a daughter of the Divine Beast, it's obvious that they would have that reaction.....

Being the center of attention, Kuu was moving her tails while moving around.

Apparently, she was happy about it.

「Kyu, KyuKyu-!」

Then, moving closer to Airy, she made noises as she tried to greet Airy.

「.....What is it saying?」

「『I'm Kuu, please to meet you!』 Was what she said.」

After conveying Kuu's words, Airy had a smile on her face as she greeted back, please to meet you too!

「Can't Onee-sama speak with Kuu-chan?」

「Unfortunately, since Aisha and I did not meet with Cetus-sama.」

While Airy and Sylphy were chatting away, the appearance of Maid-san has completely disappeared.

Speaking while moving, we walked at a slightly faster pace, and the two followed suit.

As I went out of the room and looked forward, I saw Maid-san waiting for me at a slightly further place.

「I deeply apologize for interrupting with your conversations.」

Maid-san bowed deeply.

「No! We are sorry as well!」

Maid-san apologized for moving too fast, and I apologized for being slow, and once that was over, we went to where King-sama awaits, in the office.

「You're here, come on in.」

After knocking the door, I could hear Brother-In-Law-san's voice from within.

Accepting his offer, I opened the door and there I saw King-sama and Brother-san, and also Morg-san of the Prime Minister welcomed us all.

「I've kept you waiting for long as there was an urgent matter to be settled, so I apologize.」

As King-sama said that, before I could reply Sylphy spoke first.

「.....Father, about that urgent matter....Is it about the entanglement with the Demon Country?」

After Sylphy spoke, King-sama, Brother-san, Prime Minister Morc had a panic look in their faces.

「.....Aaah, you're right.」

「I see,.....I have just come to know about it not long, and my Danna-sama has a prominent report to tell you.」

「What!? Myne? What sort of prominent report would that be?」

I then spoke about what I told Sylphy just now where Jormungand-sama and I saw what happened to the town.

The more I continued, the cloudier the three of their faces became.

「.....I see, so Jormungand-sama told you. If that's the case, then it's not a mistake.」

After King-sama said that, the room turned quiet.

Then, after some time, King-sama once again spoke.

「Well, let's talk about that slowly afterwards, so what did you want to talk to me about?」

NO way, since Sylphy said that she was aware earlier, don't tell me it was only about that?」

Perhaps the King knew about the atmosphere, so he tried to brighten up the mood by speaking at a cheerful voice.

Alright, I will take on that intention and speak to him energetically.

.....But since Prime Minister Morc is here, I can't really say so specifically.

After looking at Morc-san, I reported.

「Yes, that's right. I have completely forgotten. The request that you gave me the other day, I have successfully created it and wanted to tell you.」

「What!? Did you really completed it! Well done Myne!」

With that, the subject shifted to the Teleporting Door that I made.

「What!? Have you finally completed it! Well done Myne!」

It seems that King-sama immediately understood that I was talking about the Teleporting Door.

Just now, the King was trying to show a bright attitude to lighten the mood around us, but after hearing the report from me, he looked pleased from the bottom of his heart.

「Yes, the details.....」

The King again understood what my intentions were as I was looking at Prime Minister Morc.

「I'm sorry but, Morc, could you wait for us outside for a while?」

「.....I do not mind but is it something that even I the Prime Minister can't know about?」

Apparently, Prime Minister Morc noticed that I was staring at him earlier.

Maybe that's why he thought the King's commands were strange.

「Let's see, this talk literally concerns about one's "life", and that is something that I have sworn not to talk about.」

The King reminded me of Fenrir-sama's "Divine Beast's Contract".

However, that can only be accepted by those who have met Fenrir-sama and given approval from Fenrir-sama.

Well, it's true that if he mentioned it to someone about my skill, it might most certainly be a painful death, but if you don't talk about it then the protection would stay.

I don't think Fenrir-sama would give it willingly to someone, especially giving it to humans for their convenience.

「Hou? Who did King-sama swear upon?」

Oh, apparently King-sama's words seemed to have caught the interest of Morc-san.

Well, I wonder how the King would solve this....

「Oh Morc, I do not dislike your attitude of trying to increase your knowledge about something of interest.....but sometimes, there are things that you should be better off not knowing about in this world.」

Morc-san who heard the King's reply, twitched his eyebrows.

It might have been an unexpected reply.

My heart was raising as to whether or not the word "Divine Beast's Contract" would be mentioned.

However, if you think about it, if someone talks about the "Divine Beast's Contract", then it would break the content of the contract.

As such, it is impossible for King-sama to do such a curious thing.

「Hohou, for Your Majesty to word it as such.....This is knocking on wood, if that's the case, shall I excuse myself.」

While shrugging his shoulders, the Prime Minister went out of the office.

Somehow we dodged a person who was extremely curious about our situation, and the ones remaining in the office were only my family who knew about my skills.

『Waffle, just in case, could you search around our surroundings?』

When asked to do so, Waffle responded with 「Wafu!」 and immediately started searching.

Even though I can practically use any skills, but in terms of sensing ability, Waffle is a step above me.

Thus, leaving this to Waffle was the right decision.

『It's alright, I didn't sense any magic, nor people.』

『Thanks Waffle!』

After thanking him, I gently stroked the tail that was hanging down in front of my eyes, and Waffle seemed happy as he narrowed his eyes.

While looking at our situation, Brother-san asked excitedly.

「So, Younger Brother, was the door that has your skill sealed really completed?」

「Yeah, a little.....no, it was really difficult but.....」

While saying that, I took out the door which was connected to the Dismantling Room of our home which I made in advance and put it inside the storage bag.

Both King-sama and Brother-san looked at the seemingly normal door.

「.....Father, Brother.....is there anything wrong with the door?」

Airy who does not know the situation tilted her head while asking.

Looking at her father and brother in excitement, she was curious too.

「This is what Danna-sama was here for. It might be the possibility of Airy's hope to be fulfilled.」

Though Sylphy was explaining to Airy, she did not understand it well. Thus she continued looking at the door in a strange manner while tilting her head.

Sylphy never went further with her explanation.

I guess she thought that it would be understood once they look at it.

Practical rather than theory, it is exactly as is.

「This door, is connected to my home's Dismantling Room.」

After mentioning, Airy finally understood what it is.

She showed a surprised expression.

「Th, this, could it be.....the same movement skill that Onii-sama uses!?!」

Listening to Airy's words, King-sama finally asked.

「.....Fumu, well can I try it right away?」

「Yes, but for safety reasons, I'm gonna go in first.」

Even though I've tested that there was nothing wrong with it, but if perchance King-sama used it and something were to happen, then it'll be even troublesome.

It would cause a chaos to the entirety of the Kingdom of Orcus.

Hence, it was better for me to use it and prove that it is safe.

So, Waffle who was on top of me, followed as I went through the door. Then it was Sylphy's turn.

The Fortuna Family disappeared without a trace, then after only the royal family were left, they looked at each other and nodded.

「Well, I'll go first!」

Amongst the royal family, Airy was the first to go into the door. Well since Airy has experienced moving around with my skill.

She did not feel any unease.

When seeing Airy jumped into the door, Brother Alto followed suit.

「Fumu, so he really made such a thing.....I wonder other than the Alchemist Maya, who else could do something like this.....」

Then finally, the King passed through the door.

「.....This is, where Dyne and Yukino lived huh.」

We moved from the Dismantling Room to the living room and we drank tea.

Actually, the plan was to immediately return soon, but since the King insisted on looking around the house, we showed him around and thus we are now drinking tea.

King-sama was once a friend of my mom and dad who was also in the same party.

Therefore, I think that he was rather curious about the house.

King-sama who was looking around slowly had a nostalgic, yet complicated expression that seemed to indicate loneliness.

I'm sure he was remembering the old days.

I don't know how he felt because to me it was just an ordinary sight, but surely from the King's point of view, it was that of my mom and dad who lived here.

「Myne, well done. Well, it is a shame that we can't use it in a big scale due to the "Divine Beast's Contract".....」

King-sama was praising me.

「.....Younger Brother....I think that this door is great and all, but I feel like there is one drawback to it.....」

After Brother-san passed through the door with an excited feeling, asked me in a cool tone.

「A drawback....?」

Hm, Hm, Hm? What is it? I can't think of anything at all.....

Sylphy too was wondering? As she tilted her head.

Even though it had no relation whatsoever, but the gesture of Sylphy tilting her head looked exactly like Airy before.

As expected of sisters. I was impressed by strange things.

.....Whoops, the story has diverted. So, a disadvantage huh.....

「.....I'm sorry Brother-san. But I do not understand.」

As I answered, Brother-san pointing out the disadvantages of the door.

「The drawbacks of the door is.....」

Author's Note:

Thanks for reading.

TLN Note: So recently I have been thinking about some ideas for my upcoming project, and one of them had to do with coming up with an original idea for a short novel story. It's still a work in progress, so not everything is final at the moment, but I have planned out a rough draft about how the story is gonna go, and the main part about this story is, it's gonna be a "choose your own path" kinda story, so I want the readers(everyone) to participate it actually building the protagonist's path till the very end.

「The drawbacks of the door is.....」

I swallowed my saliva in anticipation of Brother-san's next words.

Ah it wasn't just me, but the rest of us were also waiting for his response.

「.....that anyone can just use it to move around.」

Everyone let out a 「Fuuh」 sigh of relief. It was surprisingly a simple drawback.

Rather, wasn't the reason why they called me to create this was so that movement would be convenient?

I felt that Brother-san's point of view contradicts the purpose in the first place.....

「.....Uhhh Brother-san, about your worries.」

As I tried to inquire further, Brother-san shortly said 「Aah」 and nodded.

Hm? I wonder what happened. Even though I properly completed my assignment, I don't think it's a drawback?

As I was still wondering while tilting left to right, Sylphy suddenly clapped her hands together and said 「Aah, I get it now.」.

If even King-sama didn't mention anything, then even he acknowledges this drawback/flaw.

I could see that Airy had an expression of not knowing either, well I can't blame her as she has only recently come to know about the existence of this door.

Right now, it's only me who don't understand what the flaw was.

.....Well, even if I don't understand why, I could just create something that counters that flaw.

「.....I'm sorry, I really don't get it.」

I said obediently as I gave up on guessing. However, it wasn't Brother-san that answered, but King-sama that gave me a hint.

「Myne, about what Alto said, to some extent it has something to do with how the user operates. And, it would be a problem in specific circumstances.」

To some extent on how it's used? However, during specific uses there would be a problem.....? It confuses me even more.

「How do I put it, let's say you gave your family and those who are under Fenrir-sama's contract to use this door, it wouldn't be a problem.

However, what if let's say for example Morc from earlier would be able to use it too, then what would be the outcome?」

This time it was Brother-san that gave a much more definite explanation.

.....I see now, it means that anyone could use this non-standardized item.

Plus, I might be a suspect if anyone could use it and figured out who made it.

I who wanted my skills to be absolutely concealed, having it leak out would certainly cause a lot of trouble.

If I were to point it out, I think that the current state that other unspecified people could use this door is not good.

In this kind of state, anyone who uses this door would ask about the details every time.

And if that were to happen and we can't find a way to deceive them, it'll probably cause havoc.

「I've should've said this earlier, it might be possible to prevent it to a certain extent by clarifying who could use it.

For example, it could be placed in the office room or in a private room.....However, it might not be a 100% guaranteed that it will be safe.

Just like Morc earlier, anyone might just walk in. There might also be people who would meet the King to talk about trivial matters, and counter measures to those are kinda impossible, because it's not unusual for people to come.」

That's true. Whether it's in the office room or a private room of King-sama, there is not an absolute place where no people would come and go.

Well compared to other places, the people coming and going out of these rooms are little in number, but it's still not zero.

For example, the maids who are working in the royal palace. They would still need to do their jobs by cleaning for the two example rooms.

Cleaning each and every room and washing the clothes and bed covers are naturally done every day without fail.

In other words, if you place this door in either of these, it would be inevitable that they will see this door.

Naturally, from the maid's standpoint, I guess they'll never touch the furnitures of both rooms without permission.

They'll get in trouble because of it and they might be dismissed, but being dismissed would also be another inconvenience as the royal palace would have to hire another maid.

What's more, you can't give an order and say that they absolutely cannot touch the door, as the thing called a door is something that is supposed to be cleaned as well.

So even if it's a furniture, it should obviously be cleaned. Then what if they are trying to clean the back of the door.....?

Well if it's the maid who always guides me, I don't think she'll have any problems finding out.

Anyways, she has already knew that I can suddenly appear in a room.

They even put in the trouble of creating the bell in my room just in case of my sudden appearance.

I don't know why go through all that trouble, but I guess it's to figure out when I'm coming.

Still, even if she opened the door by mistake, I would expect that probably nothing would change as she'll probably just associate the door being able to move anywhere with my secret.

As Aisha and Sylphy knew about my skills, she would just think that "Oh they must have a secret" and would come to understand without knowing too much about the details.

Indeed in such a case, it made sense. However, if it was Prime Minister Morc, then it'll be a different from that of the maid.

Well, hearing about it from Sylphy and Brother-san, I heard that he isn't a bad person.

Even though I heard that there are plenty of planned conspiracies, but all is going on is in consideration of the national interest, and it's all for the royal family.

But if it would compromise my secret being exposed, then the answer would be a big fat NO.

It's clear that we can't speak of it carelessly.

「.....It certainly has its faults.....」

「Aah, so did you finally understand? Oh and also, this is only in specific cases.....however, it's almost impossible.....」

Ah, I did remember King-sama saying that it might be troublesome for specific uses.

What could it be, in the first place what kind of specific purposes.....?

「When our royalty has to abandon the Kingdom and run away.」

.....Eh?

「There is nothing to be surprised about though? Our country is having war with other countries, so there might be a possibility that the royal palace would become a battlefield.

When that happens, how would my girls escape? With this door, the possibility of escaping will rise considerably.

However, after getting away, if the pursuer notices this door.....Of course, you know what happens next?

In such cases, it would mean that it's troublesome if anyone can enter it, well obviously this is still a very special case.」

.....I see, it is indeed troubling if such a thing were to occur.

Well, if this door would be used during emergencies, I would be happy to let it be used.

However, as of right now, it'll be useless if both sides can use it.

「I have understood the flaws. Let me think about some countermeasures.」

As I said that, King-sama and Brother-san both cheered 「Aah, good luck with it.」.

For now, let's figure out another way of working around the usage.

「.....Well then, let's bring about the next topic, it's about the invasion of the Demon Country?」

Thanks for reading

TLN Note:

I'm sorry if my translation is a little wonky, after rereading it, I'll try and proofread it again ASAP.

P.S: About the new novel that I'm coming up with, I want some ideas about the MC's name, I'm gonna ask again during the release of Level 1 Guy chapter on Saturday, so after gathering some name ideas, I'm gonna come up with a poll to decide on the name! Thank you for reading and supporting~~~

「Well then, Myne.....you've mentioned about a crucial information regarding the Demon Country. Could you tell me a little more about what Jormungandr-sama told you?」

King-sama and Brother-san looked at me with dead serious eyes.

Thus I told them all about it without missing a single word, I wonder if they could catch up.

「.....Etto.」

After a new Demon King was elected, they began by destroying several neighbouring countries.

A lot of humans that were captured have been brought back to the Demon

Country as slaves.

I've even seen a village being attacked by the Demon Race.....And what seemed to be Hume's joining in to fight back the Demon Race.

As Jormungandr-sama roughly told me about the details, I briefly conveyed to them what he said.

「What? There were Humes there....what's going on?」

「.....I'm not sure either, because Jormungandr-sama was flying way high up the sky. However....」

「.....However? What else? If there's anything that caught your interest, please do tell us more about it.」

「It's about those people that looked like Humes, while I was up in the air, I noticed something.

Somehow if my skill wasn't active, I wouldn't have been able to figure out what the situation was.....」

That's right, at that time.....That guy was directly looking at me while smiling. I'm sure he'd noticed me.

If I didn't have the 【Enhance Vision・M】 skill, I wouldn't have known at all.

「Your skills? Wait so you didn't use your 【Appraisal】 skill?」

「.....Since Jormungandr-sama was moving at such a high speed, before I could activate my 【Appraisal】 skill, we've already flown past the village.」

Right, it was rather unfortunate that I missed my chance to use 【Appraisal】. However, someday I'll clash with that guy.....My guts was telling me that.

「Fumu, I see. That guy that you brought up sure interests me.」

Brother-san then put his hand on his chin and began thinking.

「Are you sure it's the Hume race?.....Even if it's you, it might just be that you've judged it wrongly.」

King-sama asked further.

「Hmmm, well I didn't say that it was absolutely a Hume....However, from what I could see, it had the shape of a Hume.」

After I answered, King-sama did a similar thinking pose like Brother-san..

I don't think that is worth anything useful though, they're really like father like son. That's right, Sylphy would have that kind of behaviour from time to time.

「.....This is just a possibility, but that man.....he might be one of the leaders who were leading the Demon Race?」

King-sama unexpectedly told me.

A Demon(Majin)? Aah, that's right. It's one of the positions in the Demon Country, when King-sama said Demon, he meant their race.

「In the past we've met it once, I.....no my party has fought against a Demon before.」

In the first place, the Hume race do not understand much about the information of the Demon Country, let alone the Demon Races.

Well it's not like they have anything to say as we never had any exchanges.

The details of how the Demons or the Demon Races(Orc, Goblin, etc..) are living together are quite mysterious.

And such a mysterious Demon had fought against King-sama's party before.

「So the person that I saw, was this Demon person?」

「It might be a possibility. Well in the first place, the Demon Race wouldn't be surrounded with the Hume Race, let alone working together.

Well it's not like there's anything to lose by thinking that it might be a Demon. What's more, other than Skills, the Demons do possess some strange powers as well.

Seeing as how he saw you from way up the sky, it might be one of his powers.」

I see, since at that time I didn't know anything about them, I just thought he was a Hume.....

If it's a war involving the Demon Country, then it's no wonder that a Demon acting as the commander would lead the troops.

What King-sama hypothesized might just be correct.

「Anyways, now that I've heard from both the Adventurer's Guild and Myne's stories, the fact that the Demon Country is launching a war against us is without a doubt happening.

Even though we're far from the Augusta Kingdom, we aren't in imminent threat, but that's precisely why we should think about some countermeasures.」

「Father, this is just a sudden thought of mine but.....Cleo, what about the movement of the Grand Duchy Cleo.....?」

Hm? This is the first time I've heard of such country.....

And King-sama who heard of that name, had an extremely unpleasant expression.

「.....I don't know, but I hope they won't do anything bad.」

The story about the Demon Country that might be a huge problem in the future ended for the moment, so we relaxed ourselves with a cup of tea. The talk right now, went back to the spacetime door.

「Anyways, I was surprised about the door that Myne created. I know that I've asked you to create it, but to actually have done it was out of my expectation.」

King-sama talked to me in a good mood.

Even with the flaws, to be able to find such a useful method is still a plus.

「If only there's a way we can use it at the present moment.....」

After Brother-san said that, for some reason Airy stood up and looked at us then started speaking.

「Dear Father, about the matter regarding me not being able to join Myne Onii-sama's Clan, can you please reconsider it.」

Aah, that's right. It seems like Airy hasn't obtained permission from King-sama and Queen-sama.

Even though I've never said anything since then, I was wondering what had happened to it....

I'm sure that Sylphy who brought Airy over was to discuss about it.

Well then, King-sama....how are you going to decide on this?

「I've already said this before, even if it's Myne or Sylphy, and even Aisha who's living together, they wouldn't be able to follow you everywhere right? What if at the off chance that something has happened to your body? So please just give up on it.」

An expected reply. If I looked at the parent's perspective, I too would be worried about letting my daughter who has a poor physical condition to go to some place for a long period of time.

「Dear Father, if I may comment about it too?」

Hm? What is Sylphy up to? I wonder if she's trying to support Airy as well.

I'm sure that she has talked to Airy about various things.....

「It's about Danna-sama's "door" that he created, if we can use that then the problem for Airy would be solved. Instead of staying at Lucas, she could just come here from the palace everyday and Father wouldn't have to worry about it either....How about it?」

.....I get it now. If she can traverse here immediately she could get into the bath and replenish her magic for a day, then after a fixed time, she could come again and replenish her energy again.

It might be grueling to sit on the horse carriage everyday to come to Lucas, so if she uses my spacetime door, then she could come here everyday.

「Muu.....no, it's still a no. If an emergency occurs, and if there's nobody that understands the function of this door nearby, wouldn't that just be the same as before.」

「Mumumu, Dear Father....you're really stubborn you know that.」

No wait, I do understand how you feel Airy, but it's because King-sama is really worried about you, that's why he said these things to you, he's not being stubborn okay, I repeat, not stubborn.....

「If that's the case, then we can just ask Kate the Maid(rhymes) to follow Airy then?」

Sylphy then proposed another idea. Kate the Maid? I wonder who's that.....

Don't tell me, it's the maid-san that always looks after me? However, the maid can't follow her to the Clan House everyday right? Isn't maid-san busy as is?

「.....If Kate agrees to it, then that's just the way it is.....」

Even Brother-san who was keeping quiet for awhile started having an interest.

If this was a game, then Airy would've convoluted King-sama.

「That's right! If Kate were to follow me then there will be no problem! Father! Please let me go! I want to join Onii-sama's Clan!!!」

What an intense battle between family members. Waffle, Kuu, and I are just outsiders.....By the way, Waffle was on top of my head, and I was hugging Kuu, but even they looked like they were about to fall asleep.

I understand both Airy's and King-sama's feelings, so I wish I could convince both sides with a suitable answer.

「.....I've understand all of your feelings. I will discuss this with Garnet tomorrow, so wait for the news.」

In the end, as they left my home, they didn't come to a conclusion so Sylphy went back to the palace and stayed. Also, the door that I created will be placed inside Garnet-sama's room until I come up with the new and improved version.

Since it's Garnet-sama's room, the only ones allowed to go in would be King-sama and his family, and also Kate the Maid. Even the second queen and Prince Lectar who didn't receive Fenrir-sama's "Divine Beast's Contract" wouldn't go in. Well, I guess the security is safe for now.

.....Then, the next morning, eating Aisha's delicious breakfast, needless to say that Airy with a smile on her face and Kate wearing a maid uniform had join for breakfast as well.

Proofread: Shiro

This morning, there were quite a few people visiting my home.

.....That's right, the long awaited Clan House has finally been completed.

Which means, the Clan 「Eternal Sunflower」 is about to start its real purpose.

Even though it's a newly created Clan, there are our two Princess Knights, Sylphid, once the first Princess and a former B Rank Adventurer, and another, Alsha, that also holds the title of the Holy Bow. There wasn't any reason for them not to be noticed by everyone.

What's more was the building.

It was well informed that a considerable amount of money has been invested by the Royal Family.

However, it is obvious that taxes weren't used at all from their treasury.

The money that was invested by the Royal Family is all money personally brought out by them.

It might be affiliated that because the former First Princess is under the clan, but that wasn't the only reason why a huge sum of money was invested by the Royal Family.

Considering that you have invested that much money into something, it is without a doubt that someone like the Royal Family is hoping for the Clan to benefit for them in the future.

Therefore, although it is a newly formed Clan, it has already been recognized by many as being in line with other major clans.

.....Hence why there is a ceremony being held for the completion of the Clan House.

Even though I insisted till the very end that I did not want something like a ceremony, I was strongly persuaded by both King-sama and Brother-san, it became something that I must absolutely join no matter what.

But oh well, it is because of that that the Town of Lucas is being visited by nobles and powerful peoples from other towns, and even representatives of major clans were gathered here today.

Just so you know, it's already obvious, but.....since the representative of the Royal Family, Brother Alto, has decided to participate in this ceremony, so even the representative of 「Clan: Alchemist Library」, Prince Lewis has come as well. It became an extraordinary ceremony as there were two Princes to come and join.

I was being asked by Brother-san about my troubled and listless expression.

Un, Brother-san.....You knew why I'm like that right? I can see your eyes, they're laughing directly at me, you know that right?

「I'm sure that Myne Onii-sama is just being nervous, that's all!」

Aah, that's right, Airy was here too. It wasn't just two Princes, but two Princesses (though one of them is a former) as well that are present..... I got a feeling something big is about to happen.....

「.....Ah no, I'm sure Brother-san would know the reason?」

「Aah, of course I know. Do you seriously hate the ceremony?」

「It was the same with the wedding.....no matter what others say that I'm now a noble, in my mind I'm but a commoner still? To have such a large scale ceremony in front of everybody, obviously I would hate it.....」

While complaining to Brother-san, Amy-san called for my name.

「Myne-sa~n, where are you~? There's a guest here waiting for you~」

Hm? A guest....I wonder who? As today I had to greet many guests, from nobles to powerful peoples, if anything, there were a lot of people that are interested in Sylphy..... Anyways I should go and have a look.

I told Brother-san and Airy to kill some time as I hurried over to the entrance.

「Sorry for the wait, Amy-san. About the guest that you said.....?」

As I went back to the living room and looked around. As before the ceremony starts, nobody is allowed inside the Clan House, so the guests were all waited at my living room. However, the guest that I was expecting isn't around.

「Aah, Myne-san! I was looking for you, you know! The guest is waiting at the entrance!

Even though I insisted on him to come in, but he said that 「I'm fine waiting here」.」

.....I wonder who this person is? To me, it sounded like he wasn't one of the nobles.....For now let's hurry to the entrance! I can't let a guest wait for me!

「.....Sorry for the wait! I'm the owner of the Fortuna Family, Myne・Fortuna.」

After introducing myself, I walked over to the entrance.....and the person there was.

「Ou! Myne! As promised, I'm here for the Speed Shoes!!」

「It's Cashew-san!」

The guest was surprisingly the leader of 「Clan: Soaring Dust」, an A Rank Adventurer named Cashew-san. I see, when they meant by a major clan representative to come, it was Cashew-san!

Now that I think about it, I did ask him to come and take the Speed Shoes, and since he's coming to the ceremony anyways, what better time than now to come and get it.

「I was finally able to come.....once again I give you my thanks. The offer you gave this time was really helpful.

Well, the Client was quite hard to catch, so it took quite some time out of me. However, we received more than the contract offered, which meant we are rewarded for an entire month.]

I remembered a month ago in the Dungeon of Strength. Cashew-san was grinning from left to right, and started talking.

「Well then, you think you can hand over the goods?」

「Yeah, no problem.」

I then took out the Speed Shoe from my storage back, and handed it to Cashew-san.

Immediately, Cashew-san observed the shoes from up and down, left and right.

「.....This is, without a doubt, the Speed Shoes. So about the payment....」

「Huh?」

The one sentence I gave was too unexpected of an answer. After letting out a stupefied voice, he stared at me my face, stunned. Well honestly, the matter about the money was discussed with my family so we decided to give it to him.

「Well then, about the Speed Shoes.....how much should we sell to Cashew-san?」

While exchanging the newly acquired Ciel Soulier (TLN:I'm quoting this from the previous translator as even I have no idea what it is, it might be the Seven-League Boots from mythology?) with the Speed Shoes that Aisha had in the Dungeon of Strength, I asked Aisha and Sylphy about their input.

「Danna-sama, about that.....Why not give it for free?」

「For free? Why?」

I was struggling so much for it, so I'm sure I could sell it for a high price, but why give it for free.

「That's not what I mean, it's not truly free if you think about it. I thought that it would be a good idea to have Cashew owe us a favour. From what I know of Cashew, he is a former A Rank Adventurer and has a very high record of being reliable. If we have someone like him backing us up, honestly it's the best deal.」

「....However, I'm sure that Sylphy and Aisha are acquaintanced to him?」

「Yes, it's true that we are acquainted to him. However, It's different for Danna-sama? It's better to gain connections for Danna-sama and someone like Cashew. And also Danna-sama is our leader too.」

After Sylphy said that, Aisha who was quiet this whole time started to speak as well.

「Myne-kun, I too agree with the Princess. If we're short on cash, but we're not right now, so have a connection with Cashew would be a great merit for Myne-kun.」

I see, since I've been poor for a long time, my mindset was immediately moved towards earning money, but at this moment, we aren't troubled by money.

Hunting monsters, then selling it to the butcher and to the Clan of Prince Lewis, so things like worrying about money was long gone. I felt nostalgic hunting for rabbits and putting up traps.

It's true that its necessary to have connections between various people.

The people that I have owed my life to, were definitely the people who Father and Mother left to take care of me.

Butcher Ojii-san, The weapon shop Ojii-san, the Armor Ojii-san, and the Alchemist Onii-san.

The town mayor, the craftsmanship-san, the gatekeeper Edgar-san.....I cannot tell how much I'm grateful for them.

Therefore, I can understand what Sylphy and Aisha wanted.

「That's right! Since it's approaching let's give it to Cashew-san as a gift then!」

「For the commemoration of getting to know Cashew-san!」

I smiled, and gazed at the Speed Shoes while bowing my head.

「Fuu, even your two brides are strange.....Is it true that married couples are said to resemble each other? Alright, I understand, I will receive it. You said that you're working together with Prince Lewis's Clan right. Why not be in good terms with us as well?」

「Yes! Certainly! I will happily cooperate with you!」

With that, it was decided that I have gained a reassuring friend.

Proofread: Shiro

After separating ways with Cashew-san, the guests came inside my house one after another.

「Hello, Myne-dono.」

The one who greeted me was Captain Franz.

And behind Captain Franz was a large older male Knight wearing a rugged armor and another one is a brown skinned.....female knight that is probably the same age as Sylphy. They’re probably the two people that I heard from Captain Franz who would be accompanying us.

Since they are to escort the only living elf, Amy-san around, I doubt that their personality would have any problems. I’m sure that the both of them are excellent people.

.....Eh? Now that I think about it, aren't we missing another two more civil officials. Don't tell me that they hated Lucas that much that they swore not to step foot to this town!?

Th, that would be disastrous! We can't have Amy-san be in charge of the reception and also office work.....

I wonder if Captain Franz guessed what I was panicking about, as he continued speaking while smiling.

For now, let's focus on what he's gonna say. It's bad if I don't hear all the details.

「.....So, let me introduce them.」

With one word from the Captain, the two knights from behind stood forward.

Hmmm, the slightly older Knight-san.....gives out such pressure when he stood closer to me.....It wasn't because of the armor, it was the person himself that was emitting such pressure.

Anyways, he has a firm build with a white moustache which was his characteristics.

「My name is Gantz! Myne-dono, it's a pleasure to meet you! Gahahahahaha.」

This elderly Knight-san.....Gantz-san does the same as Brother-san where he smacks my back repeatedly while energetically and loudly greeted me. From the looks of it, he seems to be a lively person.

「Hello, my name is Melissa. Please take care of me from now on.」

The brown skinned Knight-san is name Melissa-san.

To put it in one word, she's beautiful.....It was a different beauty compared to Sylphy and Aisha, it's as though she portrays a very active, or maybe a fierce appearance.....that was the sort of image I received.

From what Captain Franz has said before, both of them have amazing histories.

Let's start of with Gantz-san first. It seems like he was once under the Konoe Knights Division. Even though his personality is very lively, I'm sure his fighting experience would follow the same traits.

The weapon that he uses are, Two-Handed Axes. Plus, without hiding his skills, he broadly told us that he has 【Two-Handed Axe • Holy】 and 【Frontal Breakthrough】.

Some time ago, he was fighting alongside with King-sama.

.....Oh and also, since its after King-sama became a King, he wasn't acquainted to my Father and Mother.

Name: Gantz • Forum

Race: Hume

LV: 51

Sex: Male

Age: 62 years old

Occupation: Ex-Captain of the Konoe Knights

【Skill】

Two-Handed Axe • Holy Lv8

Frontal Breakthrough Lv10

Handicraft Lv7

Hmm, I'm sure that he'd openly told us about his skills but.....【Handicraft】?

What's more, the LV is quite high.....It's a skill that I would never have guessed he has based on his appearance.....

.....And then, we have Melissa-san. She herself has quite the amazing history too.

Seems like she's the Vice Captain of the 2nd Konoe Knights. Both her personality and ability is at the top class, together with the Captains of the First • Second Konoe Divisions, even Captain Franz praised that she has outstanding talents when he first saw her.

Originally, Captain Franz wanted to leave from the First Order of the Konoe Division for her, but there was no way for Melissa-san, who is the Vice Captain of the Second Konoe Knights to be delegated to Captain Franz's position as the Captain in charge of the Second Division would not like it.

As the Captain that belongs to the Second Knights Division loves innocent looking girls, it seems that he would frequently sexually harassed women such as Melissa-san.

So even if he had some personality problems, combat, talent and command wise, even the country has to admit that he is the real deal to be a Captain.

However, it seemed like Melissa-san have reached her limit of patience, and just the other day told Brother-san that she wanted to quit her job. Well, even if the reason for quitting the job was her higher up sexually harassing her, they can't easily let such a talented person be fired.....

Thus, Brother-san who thought hard over how to keep her discussed with Captain Franz, and finally thought of inviting her over to become under my Konoe Knight unit.

To begin with, she looked up greatly towards Sylphy, and trusts Captain Franz, so she quickly decided to transfer over.

Name: Melissa • Virus

Race: Hume

LV: 34

Sex: Female

Age: 20 years old

Occupation: Ex-Vice Captain of the Second Konoe Knights

【Skill】

Two-handed Spear • Holy Lv5

One-handed Spear • Extreme Lv4

Support Magic • Speed Decrease Lv7

Wow! In terms of skills, she's way superior than both Brother-san and Captain Franz together.

So she's an expert with spears. She even has a support magic.....

It really is a waste if she were to leave.

Fumufumu, her age is.....older than Sylphy by one year.

Since she respects/looks up to Sylphy, perhaps she would be a good companion to talk with?

Alright, so these are the members that would be serving under the Fortuna family.

「It's nice to meet you all as well! I'm still rather inexperienced as a person, and as you can see I'm from the countryside. So I may cause inconvenience to everybody. However, I will do my best to learn and grow variously from everyone!」

After saying that, I bowed my head down, and Gantz-san and Melissa-san had blank expressions on their face.

Aah, their faces reminded me of when I first introduced myself to Aisha and the Guild Leader.

「Gahahahahah! I see, I see. It's just as Your Majesty said!」

「My, Myne-dono, please raise your head! We're your subordinates, aren't we.....」

They both of them showed me some interesting reactions, then Captain Franz let out a sigh before cutting into our conversation.

「.....Melissa, that's just how Myne-dono is. And I see that Gantz-dono have heard about him from Your Majesty I suppose.」

「Hm? Something like that. That's why this old body of mine who had retired came back to play apart in this lad's stage.....What's more, it's a pleasure to see how our former Master grows from now onwards.」

「.....Haah.」

The three Knights who were talking about me looked at me, then Sylphy who saw me walked away towards us while bringing over a man and a woman.

「Danna-sama, so you were here?.....Oh? If it isn't Melissa, I see. If you're the one who came here, then I'm relieved.」

「Nn? Ah if it isn't Hime-sama, I'm also here too ya know?」

「Gantz Ji, you don't have to say for me to know. you don't think I could miss such a huge body within my sight?.....However, for Gantz Ji to return, I'm rather surprised.」

As I suspected, Sylphy not only knew Melissa-san, but Gantz-san as well.

Well, they are former Konoe Knights, so it's not uncommon for her not to know.

「Sylphy, who are those two?」

I asked as I saw two nervous looking people standing behind Sylphy.

「Aah, I'm sorry for not saying anything. These two are the newly assigned civil officials for our 「Eternal Sunflower」.」

After Sylphy has introduced them, the two of them stepped forward awkwardly and bowed to me.

「 Nice to meet-syuuu! 」

.....Ah they bit their tongue. Or more like, how did the both of them bit their tongue at the exact same time.....

Eh?? The two of them looked oddly similar.....Don't tell me.....

「 Ni, Nice to meet you! We are the civil officials from now on, please take care of me.」

「 My name is Leon • Iczer.」

「 My name is Mira • Iczer.」

Aah, if they have the same family names, then that means they're brothers and sisters? Siblings?.....No maybe they're twins.

.....Whatever it is, they really looked similar.

「 As you can tell, they're both twins. Leon is the brother and Mira is the sister.」

As Sylphy explained, they seemed to have lived in a town that was further north from the Kingdom called Brine.

Their house, the Iczer family are of middle-class aristocrats, and they have been getting high acclaim from the Royal Family which helped build a reputation. However, Leon-san and Mira-san were the third and fourth son and daughter of the family, so it wasn't necessary for them to inherit the family, thus they were sent off to a relative of the Iczer family which are all merchants, so while the both of them were there, they studied seriously to help out as much as they could.

Occasionally, the wife of Captain Franz would go in and out of the merchant house, so she knows how hard those two works. Even if they were nobles, and based on their conversations, it seems like they were good people.

Captain Franz who heard of the story secretly confirmed the two of them, and after judged their personality and work efficiency, decided to scout them.

「Do they both know of Amy-san?」

No matter if they are sons of nobles, I'm pretty worried about sharing Amy-san's secret.

「Yes, they know. Don't worry, I'm sure they won't tell anyone.」

From my question, Captain Franz replied with confidence.

I don't think it's a 100% that they wouldn't tell.....

While I was thinking as such, Sylphy whispered to me.

The Craftsmanship-san has created a bracelet-type magic tool, which prohibits someone from being able to speak of a certain matter.

Whaat, I didn't know such convenient magic tool could be created by Craftsmanship-san.....

I really have to meet with them again.

Anyways, if such magic tools exist, then I have nothing to worry about.

「I understand, Leon-san, Mira-san! It's a pleasure to meet the both of you!!」

With this, the initial members of 「Eternal Sunflower」 is officially decided.

TLN Note(about the scheduling of Level 1 Guy and Cut&Paste):
I was thinking though, is it better to have the chapters for cut and paste be released on Thursdays and Sundays, rather than Tuesdays and Thursdays? And as for Level 1 Guy, I could then put it on Tuesdays and Saturdays? Or is the current schedule right now alright with everyone? I feel that it would be better to have a gap in between so you have more anticipation on it? Not really sure where I'm going with that. 'nyways, let me know your thoughts about it~

「Fuu, with that the greetings are done I suppose.....」

After exchanging greetings with the newly introduced people, Aisha and Amy-san brought over Waffle and Kuu over to where I originally was.

「With this, everyone from the 「Eternal Sunflower」 has gathered?」

Captain Franz, Gantz-san, and Melissa-san are under the Konoe Knights of Fortuna, so they aren’t really part of the Clan members. But of course, if situation arises in the Clan, they would come and help out, which basically means it’s sort of lending their powers for the Clan House whenever needed.

Regarding the civil officials, the Iczer siblings are to be registered as members under the 「Eternal Sunflower」.....Well, it’s just a front for the outside people.

In terms of results, we'll just play by ear, so it's something like 「Eternal Sunflower」 + 「Fortuna's Konoe Knights」 working together as a team.

【Members of Eternal Sunflower】

Sylphid • Fortuna

Aisha • Fortuna

Amy

「Myne-kun, Prince Lewis has asked for you to gather in front of the Clan House as the ceremony is about to start.」

While hugging Waffle, Aisha turned to me and said.

Aah, it's almost time.....I'm bummed out but I still have to do my best.

After talking to everyone on the spot, we started moving to the place.

.....However at that time, I did not realize it. There was a person that I did not greet yet. And while we moved to the open space, that person was staring at us, observing us in the shadows.

The ceremony has finally started. Right now, the person that was standing on top of the podium was the Village Chief.

「.....In conclusion, the place that we're living in right now, Lucas, has officially gave birth to a new Clan. The Eternal Sunflower, I'd love for everyone here today, to please remember this name. Just the other day, we had a wedding ceremony belonging to Sylphid-sama and the former Guild Receptionist, Aisha-dono which had its problems as well.....However, these are the things that we, as the residents of Lucas, need to know about.」

「Heed my words, everyone here today. The representative of this Clan isn't actually Sylphid-sama. That's right, the representative of the Clan is none other than the husband of Sylphid-sama and Aisha-dono, Myne-dono. Does everyone know about Myne-dono? To us, the residents of Lucas, he is a hero. The child that was left behind by Dyne-dono and Yukin-dono, that is Myne-dono. And that Myne-dono is the representative of this clan. Thus, let us bless him from the bottom of our hearts!!」

The citizens that heard the speech of the Village Chief, all cheered at once.

Then, various people started looking at our direction,.....However, the gazes are by no means unpleasant. Feelings of appreciation and familiarity.....and the feeling of warmth from the gazes of the audiences were directed towards us.

Even though Father and Mother have passed away for more than 5 years.....However, I know for a fact that the citizens of Lucas all respected Father and Mother.

「Thank you for remembering my Father and Mother! They're my pride and joy! ! I am really happy ! !」

Facing against the people that were gathered before me, I bowed down deeply to them.

And from the crowds that were looking at me, one man shouted.

「We as well are proud of Dyne-san and Yukin-san, being a hero for us! How can we possibly forget about them! Puff your chest up, Myne! To them, you were their pride and joy as well! And also Myne! To all the citizens of Lucas, you are also our proud son! Get it! So do your best! We're all here for ya!」

The crowds that were cheering earlier gotten even louder. The people gathered here all smiled and called out to my name, rooting for me.

The man that voiced out his feelings. I've seen almost everyone here in the village, but I have not seen him before.

.....However, I received such warm words from him. I remembered as well, at that time when I went back home after the wedding ceremony, how lucky of a guy I was. Everyone in the Village of Lucas are all good people.

After that, the cheers continued until Brother-san went up the stage and continued. As expected of the King's son, the moment he opened his mouth, everyone went quiet and listened. The royal family of this country really is liked by everyone.

「.....As far as I can see, there is no need for me to say much. However, there is one thing I would like to address.」

Brother-san then slowly turned and looked at everyone.

The cheers so far has calm down, and the citizens have switched their attention to Brother-san.

Really, as I expect from the Prince, he is really used to giving speeches. I think no matter how hard I try, I do not think I can imitate what he just did.

Brother-san started out with some congratulatory addresses, then talked about how the royal family is expecting of the Clan before leaving the stage.

.....Next up, it was time for me to give my speech.

Uugh, I'm really nervous right now.....It was the same during the wedding ceremony, but this time I was to give a speech in front of a huge crowd, which I'm bad at.

「Hello everyone! Thank you so much for earlier! I am extremely happy with the words of encouragement. Once again, I'm the representative of the Clan, Myne. I really love the warm hearts of the citizens of Lucas. Hence why, I would love to work hard to make this a wonderful village with my Clan friends and my family, so if there's anything else you want to say, please do so! So once again, please take care of me!」

With all my heart, I thanked them all.

During mid-sentence, I have completely forgotten what I had just said, but when I walked down the stage, both Sylphy and Aisha gave me a sweet smile, which meant that I have properly said what I have to say, so I comfort my chest in relief.

After that, a few nobles took the stage, similar to the royal family, they expect great accomplishments from our Clan, and with that the ceremony has ended without any troubles.

「.....Fuu, I knew I am bad with this kind of stuff.」

Clan, together with the Konoe Knights, we were talking and relaxing inside the completed Clan House's first floor, when a warrior-like man wearing a skin armor and a man with slightly bad eyesights with the similar skin armor entered the Clan House.

「I apologize but, there aren't any clan activities for the day.」

One of the Konoe Knights, Melissa-san spoke to the guys that came in.

『『 Wafu! (KyuKyu!)It's them! !』』

Waffle and Kuu suddenly shouted at those guys that just came in. Hm? Do the both of them know the two man??

「I apologize but, there aren't any clan activities for the day.」

One of the Konoe Knights, Melissa-san spoke to the guys that came in.

『『Wafu!(KyuKyu!) It's them!』』

Hmm? Do they know them?? I don't remember seeing them before, unless they met them during the trip to the forest.

Most of the time, Waffle and Kuu would either be with me or with my family members, so if they recognized someone that I have not met before, with this kind of timing, it must be during that time.

『Do the both of you know them?』

『The first guy who came in, we do not know him——』

『But the other guy who came in, is Chunsuke's master, Kyu.』

Chunsuke? Master? What in heaven's name are they even talking about.....

Even so, why are they here? I'm sure that only the guests can come into the Clan House.

「I'm sorry eh, we have business with this Clan.....pardon us.」

Ignoring Melissa-san's words, the guys just walked towards where we were sitting.

.....Melissa-san can't strongly impose on them as they might be guests. Especially when we do not know the identities of the other party, it's best not to pursue them with strength for now.

「.....Hm?」

「Eh?」

Sylphy and Aisha unexpectedly let out their voices as they saw the guys faces. Hm? Do they know these two guys as well?.....However, it wasn't my two wives that explained their identities, but Captain Franz that said it.

「Oh, what's the matter? Tales-dono of the Clan: Demons of the Tamers Ring, what brings you here today?」

.....「Demon of the Tamers Ring」Aah, I see now. Among the top three Clans, they are famous, but in a different way.

Apparently they have tamed all kinds of rare monsters, and are collecting them?

It is true that 3 of the major Clans' representatives are invited.

Clan: Alchemist Library, Prince Lewis. 「Clan: Soaring Dust」, Cashew-san.

And finally, the Demon of the Tamers Ring's representative is this guy huh.....For some reason, he seemed to be the sort of guy I'm bad at dealing with.....

「Hou, if it isn't the First Order Captain Franz, I see you have your misfortunes? To be degraded by the Royal Palace and living in such a broke ass village.」

The guy who's called Tales, has been yapping away and making fun of Captain Franz for awhile now. Then, Captain Franz who was hearing his yapping slightly twitched his right eyebrow.

「I see you have not change much.....So, are you not gonna answer my question?」

.....Aah, he's definitely angry.....a pissed off Captain Franz.....Normally, someone as calm and collected as him, when they become angry, it'll be really scary.....I wonder how could this guy spout such nonsense to Captain Franz, and it's not like he's been downgraded. He has been tasked by King-sama himself on an extremely important mission to escort and protect the Elf, Amy-san. If he doesn't have a deep trust with King-sama, I'm sure he'll never accept such a job to begin with.

From the outsiders standpoint, it might seem that way. But if you calm down and think about it for a second, you would know that that isn't the case. For the King-to-be Brother-san and his brother, Prince Lewis to purposely make time and come to greet us in such a place. Obviously it's not something as simple as being downgraded. For someone who can't even see something as simple as this, hmm maybe he's trying to provoke him.....

What's more.....If I'm not mistaken.....From the capitals point of view, the village of Lucas does describe itself as a suburban area. So I can't deny that.

However, I have confidence in myself. I will never allow anyone to degrade this village or have anyone call it one.

The village people are overflowing with kindness, and it is a fabulous village! Plus, Father.....and Mother risked their lives to protect this village, which allowed me to be raised here safely. He wasn't just making fun of Captain Franz, but the village itself. I will absolutely not forgive this guy, and I think I will never be able to get along with him.

「Hehehe, ya don't have to be so angry. Ya know, ain't it great, to be transferred and all. It ain't like you're fired or anything? Or maybe? You want us to hire ya or something? Well, you don't even have the tame skill, so all ya can do is make tea for us or something, uhyahyayahya.」

.....How rude can this bastard be. How can such a person be the representative of a Clan?

If I'm not mistaken, the country would judge whether a person is suited to be positioned as a Clan leader.

「Coming over to someone else's Clan, and saying whatever you want? I've never seen you for awhile, and you've got yourself in a fairly high position....Tales.....what are you here for?」

Sylphy then cut off the rude behaviour of Tales.

Without showing her killing intent, she talked to Tales.

「Ooh! If it isn't the beautiful Sylphid-sama! I've heard about it! That you have been married.....While I'm still here, how could you! No wait, I understand! Yes, I completely understand!! Someone must've grabbed hold of your weakness right! It's alright now! I'm here for you!」

.....What the f-hell. This bastard.....can't even establish a conversation with him, just blabbering away nonstop.

And what did he say! He wants to say something about our marriage.

.....This guy doesn't even want to answer Captain Franz's nor Sylphy's question whatsoever, just saying whatever he wants. Seriously, what does this bastard even want?

「Even if you don't answer my question, don't you need to answer Syphid-sama's question? If you remain as such any further, do not blame me for treating you as a suspicious person.」

While holding onto the sword on his waist, Captain Franz warned Tales.

However, even with the warning, Tales kept his cool and even laughed.

「.....Tales-san, it's them. The wolf and the one in pink that is floating around.」

The other visitor (The one where Kuu called him "Chunsuke's Master") was pointing at Waffle and Kuu while whispering to Tales.

After that, a disgustingly hated smile float on his face, as his eyes looked towards Waffle and Kuu's direction.

「Ou, I see that your Clan has some rather rare tamed monsters huh? We, the Demons of the Tamer Ring will buy them at a high price, rejoice now.」

.....Now I get it, their goal was Waffle and Kuu huh. Their Clan's main objective is collecting rare monsters to begin with. And they do not know that Waffle and Kuu are both Divine Beasts.....

「What kind of nonsense are you even saying? Aren't you guys all "stupid" or something?」

As expected, I butted in. Wanting to buy my precious family with cash? Go to hell!

「Huuh?.....Ooh? So you're that bastard Myne that's running the show huh.」

.....Well, seems like I was caught in some rather troublesome situation again.

「I'm so sorry, but I have nothing else to talk with y'all. So please go back right this instance.

If you still do not want to leave, it'll be most unfortunate but I'll have to use force to make you guys leave if that's the case.」

Standing up, I faced towards Tales and warned him, then, his former smile disappeared, and answered me with a serious expression.

「Hou, do you not understand? If ya harm me in any way, it'll be a problem between Clans though? And what's with you? A grown up brat trying to act all bossy around me? Just silently hand those two demons to us, that'll be fine.」

「As I said, are you just stupid? Didn't I already say there's nothing to talk about with us anymore? I wonder who's the brat who doesn't understand the other person's words? Hahaha.」

When I heard what I just said in my mind, it made even me surprised that I could answer in such tone and sentence.

『.....Myne, be careful.....you can't really see it, but near him, there's a huge mass of magic, floating around.』

Waffle was staring on top of Tale's head, while talking to me telepathically. Kuu also realized that(...) is there, as she took a battle stance.

「Hou, quite an excellent wolf there.....Hmm, even that pink thing noticed it too. I'm getting even more intrigued.」

With Waffle and Kuu's reactions, and Sylphy who noticed Tale's reaction, she came near me and whispered.

「Danna-sama, please be careful. What Waffle and Kuu saw.....is probably one of their many tamed demons.....a "Dark Spirit". Tch, can't believe he brought over some troublesome thing over.」

Wh, what did she say!? Taming a spirit!? By spirit, it's not as strong as a Divine Beast, but it's still an extremely rare existence though? How did he even tame such a rare being!

In the first place, spirits are supposed to be a race where God gave the role of supplying Mana to this world.

Compared to a Divine Beast, although it falls behind to that of a Divine Beast, but there's no doubt that it's a race relative to God.

Normally we can't see them at all, as is the same with both Divine Beasts and Spirits.

However, there are only 10 Divine Beasts left in this world, and there are a mountain of Spirits still existing.

It takes a whole different meaning when saying that the both of them "can't usually be seen by others".

Divine Beast's themselves 「don't want to be seen」 by others. Except for my case, human beings usually won't meet them. Then compared to spirits, they can't be seen, but if you look around they definitely exist. That's obvious, as their job is to bring around Mana to this world, so it's not impossible that they are around us right now. Then, why is it that we can't see them? Originally, it is said that races that have low mana in them 「wouldn't be able to see them」. Taking the Hume race as an example, the hume race originally have a very low mana to begin with. Therefore, for those who could see them, are only a handful of people.

Then again, for Sylphy to say that if this Spirit becomes our enemy, it'll be troublesome to deal with. By troublesome, I wouldn't know either. All I know is that their bodies are made of dense mass of Mana.

Which basically means physical attacks won't work on them.

.....In the first place, to think that the existence of spirit could be hostile to a person, it should not be possible so as long you don't do anything wrong. It seems that this time it seems to be applicable....

『Wafu.....I, would not fight with the Spirit.....』

『Kyu~u~, me too~』

After Waffle and Kuu heard about the spirit, they looked confused.

Originally, Divine Beasts and Spirits are God's will, so for the peace of the world, they usually work together which makes them sort of like friends.

To have it come to this, I could understand why they would feel confused when they have become enemies.

「.....It cannot be helped, however I could not overlook your tyranny for today. So if you want to be caught by Father and to be handed over to, don't be afraid to have your Clan be disassembled....Tales.」

Sylphy stood up too, and went to my side. Then unsheathed Linus's Sword.

Then, as if the joking attitude of Tales so far was a lie, his expression suddenly turned serious, as he reluctantly listened.

「.....Can't be help, your time will.....well, that's fine. Oi, you call yourself Myne or something? I'll pull back for today. However, I'll definitely have those two in my hands, heed my words.」

As expected, once the former Princess said to dissolve the Clan, he immediately pulled back.

After spouting words to me, Tales and Chunsuke's Master? walked out of the Clan House.

However, what the heck was he thinking? Shouldn't he know that the Royal Family has connections with this Clan.....

After the figures of Tales and co couldn't be seen, the air around the Clan House has finally returned to being calm.

「....Fuu, he's gone. If it broke into a fight, then it's going to be hectic.」

Sylphy sheathed her Linus's Sword back, and Captain Franz even nodded in approval.

「Yes, the tamed spirit that he has is a Dark Spirit. There's the problem of physical attack not working, but the most problematic being able to affect the mental states of humans.」

Affect the mental state? What kind of power would that be. What's more, I couldn't even see the appearance of the Spirit? Let's ask about that.

「By “affecting the mental state”, what does that do in particular?....Plus we weren't able to see the Spirit at all?」

As I asked, Aisha was the one who answered.

「When the Spirit is in combat mode, you would be able to see it. However, I do not know the exact reason why.....」

I see, but it would be advantageous if it can't be seen at all, why would it want to purposely show its appearance though.

Then, Captain Franz was the one who answered.

「Let's see, in simple terms, it's something like a weaker version of a slave collar. It's not continuous, but if it targets someone's mind, to some extent it could control that person's will.」

「To some extent?」

「Yes, for example killing or who to kill, it could threaten the life of that subject, however it seems to be impossible to take actions contradictory to the subject.」

Fumu, so to some extent it's alright to command to 「move over there」 or 「give that to me」?

It might be possible, that perhaps he could use the Spirit's ability to order me to give up on Waffle and Kuu.

.....It is necessary to take measures against this.

「Right now, let me file a protest as a Clan member to Father.

If he does use these kinds of underhanded methods to win over something, then it is possible that his Clan would be disbanded.」

「Tch, that was poorly handled.....There's that Franz bastard there too.」

「Tales-san, is there something wrong with that Franz?」

Asking me about it, was the new guy named Kappore as he'd only recently joined under 「The Demon of the Tamers Ring」.

「That bastard, has been an eye sore to me in the past.....Until one day I was involved with him.」

Yes, that guy is just a pile of justice walking around.

Having the complete opposite ideology against me, for him to have that position, everytime I would do something, he would be sent as an inspector from the kingdom to interrupt me.

Such a fking guy to be the head of the Konoe Knights, but to be transferred to such a rural area.

It was really good news after a long absence, as soon as I heard that news, my heart beated quickly.

That Franz bastard.....that fking bastard is out to get back at me again.

It's no use if our ideas intertwined.

....However, this time it was bad.

I was thankful of Sylphid to intervene before I could do something.....That straight-laced Sylphid, it would be bad if I get a blame from the Royal Family. It seems that it was necessary to think about some underhand technique.

After some weird interruptions, the ceremony of the Clan House has safely ended, and the area around the house has quiet down. Well, the building is originally built in a place outside of the town.

If there wasn't any ceremony like just now, this place would be deserted.

[.....Phew, it has finally quiet down.]

Looking at the surrounding area of the house, such words were unconsciously let out from my mouth.

I thought that if I have to do something out of my expectation, it's alright to just be myself.....

But actually experiencing it first hand, I was physically and mentally worned out from it.

However, I did not say that I was tired. Since the Clan's activities begin in full swing starting tomorrow, I'll have to make arrangements for the activities tomorrow, so it's necessary to have a meeting on the management of the Clan House. What's more, starting today, Amy-san and Melissa-san would be staying inside the Clan House.

Oh right, before that I should lightly introduce the inside of the Clan House.

There are three floors to this Clan House. Previously, the first planning phase was to have 2 floors only, but because we had to take care of Amy-san the elf, we hurriedly decided to add another floor for her to stay in.

Fortunately, when we were talking about adding another floor, the leveling wasn't done yet, and the foundation work hasn't been completed yet. Thanks to that, I was honestly grateful that we could change the plans smoothly.

If at that time the foundation has been done, I'm certain that the ceremony that was held today would be pushed further behind by schedule.

To be honest, I felt bad for burdening everybody who worked on the construction due to the increase of another floor. To Master and the people who worked hard on constructing the building, I'm truly grateful from the bottom of my heart! Thank you very much!

Including the Magic Architects who were sent by the Royal Family, I should find a time to treat them as well.

I'm sure Master would love some good sake? When he helped build the bathroom for me, he was delighted by the sake.

.....Well, why not discuss with everyone this time?

Anyways, as for the first floor.....it can be said to be the heart of the Clan House? There are three counters to accept requests. Also, we have 3 conference rooms for our clients to be inside and discuss about their case. Along with that, 2 standby rooms for the Konoe Knights were prepared as well.

Other than that, there's a rather large canteen inside as well.

There aren't anyone using it at the present moment, but my plan was that if there is a request coming from the Royal Family or the nobles, then this would become a space that they can easily come and eat.

Moving on, the second floor is for the noble Fortuna Family's office and reception room, standby rooms are also prepared for visitors to wait inside. Even though I've said it many times that we don't need it, but Sylphy and Aisha both convinced me to have my own room.

They said that if we don't even have a room for the owner, then the other Clans would make fun of us.

Thus, we head on to the third floor, which is the Clan's official dormitory floor. It's where Amy-san and Melissa-san spent their days inside.

In a sense, this floor has some of the best facilities set up inside this Clan House.....That's right, there's a huge bathroom on this floor. The scale of it is about 10 times bigger than our home's bathroom, and it is equipped with the mechanism that keeps the temperature consistent which was the idea of Waffle.

Moreover, this time the bath was designed considering Waffle's system from the get go.

With Waffle's system, it's necessary to drain the water, but we succeeded in maintaining a large amount of water by vaporizing the wastewater which passes through a cylindrical hose to which a large amount of <Constant:Heat> is pasted there.

By the way, the household of Captain Franz and Gantz-san is placed really close to the Clan House as it was built by the Royal Family, so they could live there without using the dormitory.

However, once the existence of the bathroom was mentioned, the two of them decided to come and make use of the facility inside the Clan House with their family. Oh, not to mention, the Iczer siblings are currently lending Captain Franz's second floor to stay in.

[Alright, it's finally the time for our Clan to start our first activity.]

Sylphy looked at all the members gathered inside the conference room, and started talking.

Well, the Clan was originally Sylphy's idea. So she offered to be the facilitator.

[First, this is something that has to be decided.....]

After saying that, she looked at Aisha for a second before checking on the reception work.

As mentioned, there are 3 reception decks prepared.

Up until today, similar to other Clans, there should almost be no requests from the general public, so honestly speaking, having 1 receptionist would be fine.

However, because we have a close relationship with the Royal Family, that puts us under a possibility of having a higher-ranking person coming here for a request, so that's why we prepared a special desk just for them.

Plus, if this is similar to how an adventurer guild operates, then the reception desk would be twice from what we have.....

So the breakdown of the 3 reception desk is something along this lines.

The first, which is also the main reception desk, would be assigned by the Iczar siblings.

They are perfect for that job, and they have a sense of cleanliness when looked. So there is no need to worry about cultural aspects as they are former nobles.

So they are exactly the right people for this reception.

Next, the clients would come to this reception if the main reception is busy. Basically, this second reception desk is run by one of the other siblings to operate only when the main reception is full.

Finally, the last reception will be operated by both Amy-san and Aisha.

This reception is somewhat special, as only special requests would be brought to this place..

Therefore, there is no reception counter here. Instead, we prepared a dedicated room to be used there. This could let Amy-san be avoided from the eyes of others as much as possible, and the secrets of the clients would be protected as well. By the way, Aisha would be in charge of this third reception whenever she's free.

As Aisha was originally the receptionist for the Adventurer's Guild. So she herself raised her hands and said that she would come and help. Since Amy-san would be unfamiliar at the start, so maybe she could learn a lot from Aisha?

[.....Alright, so that does it with the reception work, so about what we should do for tomorrow, Danna-sama would continue from here.]

Sylphy passed the (imaginary)mic to me as I stood up and explained the schedule.

[Ehmm.....First of all, since there is already a request from the Royal Family, we should start from that first.]

There was one request Sylphy had received from King-sama before the Clan House was formed.

It seems that a dungeon has appeared out of nowhere at the west side of the capital(East if it's from Lucas), which takes about a day to travel by carriage. As it seems that the newer the dungeon is, the less the floors would be generated in the dungeon, so it is easier to conquer the dungeon.

There was an option to use the dungeon to increase prosperity to the kingdom similar to the Dungeon of Strength, but because the dungeon this time is too close to the capital. If something were to happen then it'll cause a huge problem. Therefore, King-sama took the safer option of conquering and defeating the dungeon.

In other words, the first request our Clan received is to conquer this Dungeon.

And with that, we finally began the request of conquering a dungeon.

Thank you for reading.

More event of naming some stuff which is probably over by now.

TLN Note: Sorry for the late post, was playing cards till midnight with a friend >W< Proofread: Shiro

Featured Image: My reaction to Carl

「Well then, I'll be going now.」

We are currently at the royal palace, visiting King-sama to inform him about the request that he gave which is to explore the newly born dungeon. It's a must to tell the person who requested the task for us before leaving, and plus heading to the royal palace is easy right now, which is by heading there using the <Unique Magic • Spacetime>.

「Alright, be careful while you're out there. Even if it's you guys, if you were to be careless at any moment, then you might get injured. Sometimes it's better to be careful.」

「Yes, I won't force myself and be cautious during the exploration.」

After reporting to King-sama, we rode the carriage provided by the Konoe Knights and away to the new Dungeon we go!

「.....And so, I've went and said it!.....Are you even listening Syphid-sama!」

During the ride inside the carriage, the one making a big fuss to Sylphy was one of the Konoe Knights, the newly appointed Carl-san. He is assigned to party with us up until arriving at the new Dungeon.

It seems like Carl-san has liked Sylphy for the longest time, and even after Sylphy has married off to me, his feelings have not change the slightest. Then again, the conversation seems to be just “wanting to talk” to the person you're interested with.

And even for the person which is Sylphy, she was showing some rather awkward expressions.

Though there is no hard feelings, but it's not like she's any more interested in the matter as well.

5 to 10 minutes have passed, no even after half a day of travelling. Even she must've been tired from listening too much.

「.....Hey, Carl. I'm sorry but I want to rest for a little while more. Can you please be quiet until we arrived at our destination?」

Ahh, so she's reached her limit. It was rare of Sylphy to be straightforward with how she talked.....

「Ah? I, I'm terribly sorry. It's been awhile since I was this happy in talking about things, that I've forgotten all about it!

That's true, after you reached the dungeon, you must be ready to engage in battles. So it's natural that you must stay sharp when arriving there!」

After Sylphy said that, Carl-san answered in an energetic voice but clearly you could see that he's not gonna lose his energy anytime soon.

Hmm, should I go over and give him a warning?

「Carl-san, you know that Sylphy is already my wife. I won't say you can't talk to her, but to keep talking without even resting, to be honest it doesn't feel good. So I appreciate if you could refrain from talking so much.....」

On behalf of Sylphy, I heed him ahead of time, and he became more sulked the more he hears. I just can't imagine his dignified figure at that time when we were having a mock battle.....

I kinda killed the mood a little, but it can't be helped....With all this.

.....I have not been annoyed with romance before, but this is quite a difficult subject to touch upon.

「No, it's my fault too. I do admit that I went overboard. Please excuse me.」

Seems like he got my message. Being a newbie of the Konoe Knights, he rather serious with himself too.....Thus, I can't seem to hate him.....

Even Sylphy who saw Carl-san reflecting upon himself, had a look of relieved.

Though it was nice that Carl-san had finally stopped talking, but before we arrived at our destination, the inside of the carriage was awkward the entire ride.

.....No wait, I'm sorry, only we were the one's feeling awkward. Waffle and Kuu were going about with their own pace throughout the journey.

When I asked later about it, they were like 『It has nothing to do with us, Wafu!』.

So, after a seemingly 'long' journey of sitting inside the carriage, we've finally arrived at the new dungeon. We left first thing in the morning from the royal palace, and right now it's still before lunch.

After Carl-san showed a reluctant line of sight to us, he finally turned back and went back to the royal palace with the carriage.

While seeing him off, we were staring at a towering 'gate' right in front of us.

「So this is.....the newly born dungeon huh.」

The only dungeons that I've been too were the "Dungeon of Power" and the "Dungeon of the World Tree". During my time on those two dungeons, I could feel this weird sensation of mana/magic whenever I stood in front of the entrance.

.....However, this dungeon doesn't have that feeling whatsoever.

Maybe it's because it's a recently born dungeon that's why.

.....Surprisingly, without this weird feeling, I do not feel any ominous feeling coming from the dungeon.

「Myne-kun, before we go in, there's one thing I would like you to be cautioned about. It is true that a newly spawned Dungeon would overwhelmingly be easier than the other dungeons, but that's because there are less floors compared to the rest of the dungeons. However, the monsters/demons inside the dungeon might not be weak.」

After Aisha warned me, in my mind I was like 「I see」. Maybe, there might be an S Class Boss right from the first floor.....No wait, maybe even a Disaster Class monster might appear too. It's true that if we are careless, we might be defeated right from the get go.

After hearing from Aisha, this time it was Sylphy who started talking with a serious expression.

「.....It isn't just that, it's just that there is this case that happened in the past.....」

Hm? Sylphy's enunciation is kinda weird. Usually she would be like 'supaa~' and just says it all out.....

Ehh, even Aisha was like huh? With that expression....What is happening.

「Aah, I'm sorry. About the dungeon, and how it was spawn.....Does Danna-sama know anything about the reason?」

Why does a dungeon spawn?.....Previously, Aisha has taught me about this! Let me remember back.....If I'm not mistaken, huge mana would sip through ruins or caves, and if you set a huge mana stone which they call it the core, the mana stone would collect the mana from its surroundings and that changes the environment which then the demon race would be born.....then that leads to the creation of a Dungeon.

「Right, something like that. Now, try imagining what it means by that?」

H~~mmm.

What is it.....Sylphy being so scrupulous with this, there must be a meaning to it.

.....Aah!! Eeeh! ? Don't tell me! ?

「Sylphy! Don't tell me it's!?!」

「Hime-sama! Is it that! ! ?」

Both me and Aisha's expression changed, and Sylphy finally answered.

「.....Since this Dungeon had just spawned recently, there might be a possibility that there isn't any Devils inside at this moment.」

I was right!.....If we think about it, that is the case.

In my mind, that person's face floated around.....It was the guy that I saw back when I was sitting on Jormungandr's back! Remembering that cold-hearted smile, it unconsciously made my body shiver.

I'm sure he knew about my existence. Even when I was flying at high speed on Jormungandr-sama's back.

「Because of that, please be extra careful when moving forward.」

#New Dungeon, First floor

『Hey, Waffle.....Don't you feel something is wrong? Whenever I picture a Dungeon, it would be overflowing with mana, but right now I don't feel that though?』

『Wafu.....I don't feel it either.』

Even when Waffle has the ability to perceive, he still can't perceive the mana.....Which meant that this Dungeon doesn't even have mana to begin with.

Is it because it's a phenomenon that only newly spawned dungeons have? Or is there a totally different reason to it. This might possibly be the key in unlocking the secrets to this dungeon.

「Wait a minute! Wait just a second Myne-kun! If you did not sense any mana.....Then that can only mean that there are no Demons inside the dungeon!? However.....」

Aisha asked a question, but she stopped halfway.

But that's true, if I don't sense any mana....it might be the case where there's no demons inside.....But, in reality they do exist. When King-sama sent the Konoe Knights to investigate this dungeon, they confirmed that there are indeed demons inside the dungeon. The report said that the Konoe Knights defeated a Slime.

.....This dungeon is getting even more mysterious. I must really prepare myself if I want to conquer this dungeon.

「Yeah, King-sama did say that there were Slimes living inside, so there's no doubt that demons are living inside. I can't feel any mana, but we do not know the abnormalities of this dungeon, and the konoe knights that came and investigate did not feel anything abnormal either.」

Right now, we have no choice but to enter the dungeon with caution.

Though there are a lot of mystery, but once we get to the bottom of this dungeon, I'm sure we'll understand the meaning behind these phenomenon.

With that mentality in mind, I thought of going inside the dungeon while being extra cautious for the time being.

「Well, let's not stand here and let's move forward first.」

After giving out an order, Waffle energetically barked 「Wafu!」.

When I looked closely, I could see Kuu wiggling her body while humming.

That's right. Worrying too much can be bad too.

Seeing Waffle and Kuu like that, I did a long stretch.

「Nn~~~~~n.」

Seeing my sudden movement, Aisha and Sylphy both looked at me with a surprised look.

Then, the both of them looked at each other and smiled, before doing the same stretching as me.

「Fufufu.」

Looking at them, I started to laugh.

「That's right. Before we even begin, there is no point in being nervous, so let's move it! While taking breaks in between, let's do this!」

While also being alarmed, I straightened my back before moving forward.

『KyuKyuKyu~~~~~! Onii-sama, it's a Slime!』

Seems like Kuu has found a Slime.

Where.....wait huh, this Slime....is completely white in colour.....

All this time, the Slimes that I've seen are all green in colour.

It is true that the colour of the Slime is based on their attributes....But this was my first time seeing a White one.

Hmmm, it's a Slime with no other features besides it's white body.

Since it's a newly spawned dungeon, is that why their levels are so low as well?

Well for now, let's 【Cut】 their abilities, and paste them on the pebbles.

Since it's an ability, we can think about balancing and distributing for Waffle and Kuu later.

「Alright, let's fight!」

Since my wives and the 2 Divine Beasts knew about my 【Appraisal】 skill, they won't start randomly attacking for no reason first.

After I ordered them, Aisha started firing her quick arrows. They were arrows being shot with her 【Archery・Holy】 skill. Since they're Slimes, I'm sure it'll be a one shot one kill.

.....Eh?

I did hear the bashing sound, but it sounded like the arrows shattered once it hits the target. The arrows immediately broke even before touching the Slime's body.

Sylphy narrowed her eyes, and stared at the Slime's appearance.

Aisha who was reloading her arrows, did the same thing as Sylphy.

That's odd, when I used 【Appraisal】 on them, I didn't see them having any skills as such.

.....No wait a second.....I've seen this before....don't tell me, it's that!? It was the same with the Black Dragon at that time?

「Everyone! Listen up! ! The Slimes might have a 【Race Skill】 on them. If that's the case, I could not use my 【Appraisal】 skill to identify it as of right now. I'm not sure what the skill is, but please be careful while fighting against it!」

.....My 【Appraisal】 skill should be leveling up soon.....

But if it doesn't level up during a crucial time, then it's no use! Come on!

「Got it Danna-sama!」

Sylphy unsheathed her Linus・Sword, and rushed towards the Slime in one breath.

「Uooooooooo!」

Sylphy's body slowly glowed in red. She must be using the 【One-handed Sword・Xtreme】 and 【Physical Strengthening・L】 skills.

Though I do not know what 【Race Skill】 it has, but with this attack I'm sure it'll be defeated. Then the surekill attack was aimed towards the White Slime.

「Wh, What the.....?」

『Wafu!?』

I can't believe it.....It reflected Sylphy's attack.....Even Waffle was shocked.

The Slime began to look furious after being attacked. It changed a part of its body to a whip like shape and whipped violently against Sylphy.

「Tsk, 【Iron Wall】 activate!」

After Sylphy activated 【Iron Wall】, fortunately the sudden attack had no damage.

From the start, the surcoat that Sylphy was wearing was one of the Royal Family's equipment. So added with the 【Iron Wall】 skill, most of the damage was reduced.

「Are you kidding!? Linus's Sword broke!」

Sylphy who was a distance away from the White Slime started speaking in a loud tone.

Wait!? What did she say!? Linus's Sword has broken!?

.....How many skills is the Slime even holding!?

「Everyone, refrain from using any physical attack! If something were to happen like Linus's Sword, your weapon would break. Especially Waffle! Refrain from using any physical damage okay!」

Damnit, I've been repeatedly using 【Appraisal】 from just now, but it's just not leveling up.

If only I know it's 【Race Skill】, I could do something about this situation....

『KyuKyuKyu! Bubble Shower!!!!』

Oh? It's Kuu. If it's 【Bubble Shower】 maybe it'll work?

The 【Bubble Shower】 that Kuu released headed straight towards the Slime.

Oh!? 【Appraisal】 has finally come through!?....Wait what's this 【Physical Attack Nullifier】!??

While that was happening, Kuu's 【Bubble Shower】 went straight towards the White Slime and it immediately annihilated it.

「everyone! 【Appraisal】 has shown! This Slime has 【Physical Attack Nullifier】!」

「What!? No wonder.」

Right, that was the reason why Aisha’s arrow broke, and Sylphy’s attack did not land.

Kuu’s 【Bubble Shower】 is a Water attribute magic skill.

Since it’s not a physical attack, once it hits the White Slime, it defeats it.

.....However, this this number behind the skill.....The proficiency? No, my other skill doesn’t display this, so it’s probably not proficiency.

While I was thinking about it, the other White Slime was defeated by Kuu’s 【Bubble Shower】.

Aah, damnit!? I didn’t 【Cut】 it....

....No wait, it’s my fault to begin with. It’s my fault that I didn’t 【Cut】 it immediately.

However, what does that number mean....I’m curious about it.

TLN Note: Happy Halloween! For those who's region has not past the 12 midnight! And also sorry for the late post, have to wake up extremely early tomorrow and just realized I didn't upload a chapter and immediately woke up and post this right this instance.

Proofread: Shiro

「Phew, so glad that we defeated it without any casualties....Sylphy, could you borrow me your Linus's Sword for a sec so I can fix it back for you?」

I'm sure Sylphy would be really sad as she had just gotten this rare item just recently. Thus, after receiving the broken Linus's Sword from Sylphy, I pasted 【Regeneration】 on it.

My 【Regeneration】 stock is getting low, guess I should head over to get some more in the near future.

「.....Ooh, the missing blade of it is slowly returning!? Danna-sama, what kind of skill did you use?」

「It's 【Regeneration】. As you can see, it's a skill to restore to its original condition. It also works on human body too. And I've pasted it onto all of our family.」

This is a reflection against the Black Dragon fight from before.

Even though you're careful with everything, there are still unforeseen circumstances that might occur.

Hence why right from the very beginning, I've pasted the skills to everyone. Of course Amy-san has it as well! Well, it's a bit hard to paste it to all of the Konoe Knights Division who do not know about my skills. But someday, I wish I could talk to them about my skills.....

「.....I see, I wonder how it works on one's own body, I'm feeling a bit scared.....」

Staring at Linus's Sword slowly forming bubbles around it and regenerating, Sylphy spoke with that image in mind.....Well, it is a rather bizarre scene.

I remember testing the skill out on my own body, remembering that made me smile bitterly.

「Well, it is a little surprising, but life cannot be exchange.....」

After saying that, Sylphy and Aisha both strongly nodded in agreement.

While we were talking about it, the Linus's Sword has successfully restored.

Since the blade was gone, I thought it would be a lot faster in restoring it.....but I guess since it's a rare weapon, the process is much more complicated.

「By the way, during the battle, my 【Appraisal】 skill seemed to have leveled up.」

「Aah, is that the reason why you knew about the White Slime's race skill?」

I nodded at Aisha's question.

「And so, because I was in such a hurry on that previous battle, I did not manage to 【Cut】 the race skill from the White Slime. So when another White Slime appears, please wait for a second. If you use any magic attacks, it'll die in one hit.....」

I've confirmed that with Kuu's 【Bubble Shower】. I'm probably certain that even with the magic skills I pasted on Aisha and Sylphy a while ago, they could use that to defeat it no problem.

However, calmly thinking about it, if I just 【Cut】 their race skills, then I'm sure even physical attacks would work.

「Aah, I got it.」

「Alright, leave it to me.」

『I got it~』

『Please leave it to me! Onii-sama!』

After confirming with four of their replies, we once again head deeper into the depths of the dungeon.

「Hey, Myne-kun.....Previously you said that the race skill of the White Slime is 【Physical Damage Nullifier】 right? Wouldn't it just be invincible then?」

「Uhhm, I'm not sure either? It is certainly a great skill but....There is something like a number. Plus it's not immune against Magic attack or maybe poison type attacks either. It has its pluses.....but I won't say it's invincible?」

Yes, the skill has something written after it, a proficiency like number was displayed. If I can 【Cut】 that out I'm sure I would know what it is.....

「.....I see, well it's better to 【Cut】 it first and find out more about it.」

「Both of you.....It seems your chance will arrive now.」

While Aisha and I were talking, Sylphy cut in.....A chance?

Aah, seems like we have 4 White Slimes as our company. Alright, let's 【Cut】 their skills!

.....For now, let's paste it on everyone.

「Everyone, it's all okay! I've already 【Cut】 the 【Physical Damage Nullifier】 so you can defeat it even without Magic attacks anymore!!」

Not just the race skills, but I've instructed everyone that I've taken the Slime's ability.

After hearing me, Aisha fired her arrows as payback.

As I expected, Aisha's arrows which did not have any effect on the previous battle has now just pierced through the White Slime's body. The White Slimes made crying noises before dying.

As expected of distance attacks. With just that she has already cleared all 4 of the White Slimes.

Sylphy smiled and talked to Aisha. Aah, I see.....Sylphy had a tough time too just now. She too wants payback.

Well then, now that we've defeated the slimes. Let's quickly use 【Appraisal】 on those race skill.

【Physical Damage Nullifier (5)】: Permanently active, able to nullify 5 physical attacks.

.....Oh my....it seems like the numbers were the number of times it can be used.

Which means, after taking 5 physical attacks, the skill would just disappear.

I wonder if this can be used or not....

It's still early for me to say whether it's useful or not.

「.....Everyone, I've identified the race skill.」

I then explained the race skill that I discovered by using 【Appraisal】.

「Hmm, it's as how Danna-sama put it, after being hit 5 times, it's basically useless....Well thinking about it normally, even by having it there's no other effect besides that.....」

『Wafu, would it disappear?』

「I thought that it would disappear.」

Well, Sylphy, Aisha, and Waffle's idea all have a possibility.

.....There were various perspectives to it, but I'm sure we'll get the conclusion after enduring 5 physical attacks.

Even if it were to disappear, we can just collect more.....wait we can't. We have to conquer this Dungeon and disperse of it.

Which means.....Let's try to reserve it as much as we can.

Even though it might take some time, but it's better to reserve more of this skill.

It's not like the 【Regeneration】 skill where I can collect more if I wanted, but I could use it during like say a boss fight and wanting to absolutely win against that fight, we can avoid risking our lives by just using the pasting the skill on ourselves.

If a similar fight with the Black Dragon happen, even if I don't make it, as long as the 【Regeneration】 skill is pasted on them, it makes for extra time for me to paste it onto them?

「Everyone, I have a suggestion.....」

I started talking to everyone about what I thought.

「.....I see, it certainly is worth taking the extra time to get it.」

「We should never neglect defense, so I agree to it as well.」

『Wafu! I approve as well!』

『KyuKyu, me too~』

Alright, since I've gotten everyone's approval, let's work hard on the next floor!

『Hey, Myne. I've thought about it, but you are gonna paste the skill on the little pebble?』

Hm? Why the sudden interest Waffle?

『Yeah, that's right?』

『If you paste it on the pebbles, what if it hits around inside your bag, wouldn't that decrease 1 damage?』

『.....There is that possibility, I can't say that there is none. Well then, how should I go about this.』

Aah, that's right! I could just do the same with the 【Constant: Water】?

If I put it inside the time stopping storage bag, I think it would stop it from moving about. Alright, let's test it right away.

.....As a result, as I expected, the pebbles did not hit onto anything because of the time stopping ability of the storage bag.

And on that day, we hunted the White Slimes all day, and using 【Unique Magic・Spacetime】, we ended our investigation for that day.

TLN Note: Happy Deepavali to all those who celebrates it!!! I'm already hearing the fireworks going off like mad XD

The next morning, we once again left for the new dungeon from our home using 【Unique Magic•Spacetime】.

Yesterday, we have secured an abundance of 【Physical Damage Nullifier】, so that took up quite some time from our exploration, thus today we will had back there and capture the dungeon as soon as possible to recover the lost time.

No matter how gracious King-sama is in not giving us a time limit on clearing this dungeon, but if we were to go with that kind of pacing, I'm not even sure how long it'll take for us to capture the dungeon.

If there are places that can be shortened, then we'll do just that.

Needless to say, we have the 【Unique Magic•Spacetime】 to traverse at instantaneous speed, so that has already saved us a huge chunk of time.

Not staying inside the dungeon, but instead being able to go back to our own home to sleep is usually not how a standard capture party will do.

Compared to the other Clan's or parties, I think we're the blessed ones.

We won't have any problems when walking for a long time as the fatigue and stress accumulated from staying inside the dungeon won't affect us.

「Well then, for today let's at least clear the first floor!」

After giving a speech to everyone, they energetically shouted 「Ooh!!」. Hmm, I wonder if going back home to stay greatly affected our performance.

They really give off a splendid mood.

Alright then, today's agenda wouldn't be unlike yesterday where we were collecting 【Physical Damage Nullifiers】, but to just defeat White Slimes when we see one appear.

Instead of purposely finding them and hunting them, our objective today is to head straight to the boss room.

This new dungeon is different from the Dungeon of the World Tree, that is Waffle doesn't need to use his ability to perceive the path to the boss's room.

As he can't perceive the mana in both the Dungeon and monsters themselves, so no matter how excellent Waffle is in perceiving it, he won't be able to utilize it.

Hence why we're wandering around the dungeon while trying to locate the boss room.

Thus, to increase our efficiency in capturing this dungeon even if it's just a little, Aisha went ahead and bought some stuff to map out the dungeon while we're walking.

As expected of a former B Rank adventurer, her way of thinking when exploring a dungeon is top notch.

When I asked about it from her, it seems like there is this skill called 【Map】 too.

So having that skill with her, it'll be way easier for Aisha to lead the way.....

「Is it over there? Perhaps we should go to the right, or should we go to that area where White Slimes were gathering around just now....」

While Aisha was looking at her hand drawn map, it showed the direction of which we've travelled.

As our sense of directions were getting so numbed after a walking for so long, it was better to have this to help us rather than nothing.

Along the way we would encounter some White Slimes which we would then defeat them, then continue along mapping the Dungeon, and when it was about time for lunch, we finally found the giant door which leads into the boss room.

.....However, something doesn't feel right. I can't put my finger.....Ah right! It's like I'm feeling some discomfort around me.

Compared to the bosses inside the Dungeon of Power and Dungeon of the World Tree, it had a different feeling from them.....

I wonder why is that? Where is this discomfort coming from?

「.....Myne-kun, the boss.....seems to have already been defeated.」

Ehh!?.....I see, It's that! ! This discomfort feeling! It's the feeling of the door opening for the first time! !

Basically it's a mechanism of the boss room inside the Dungeon, where the giant door is close while the boss is inside, and it will be locked immediately once we enter inside.

Then after defeating the boss, the lock would automatically be unlocked and the door would open by itself.

Once again, the door would be open until the boss respawns.

.....However right now, if the door is open right now, then that means the boss isn't inside. Which leads to the conclusion that someone else has already defeated the boss.

「Who exactly came here first?」

「.....We can't even investigate.....」

While I was talking to myself, Sylphy answered me.

Well, it is a dungen to begin with. So there is no restriction for anyone other than us to go inside.

However, this dungeon was just recently made, and information hasn't spread yet about this dungeon.

What's more, not knowing the danger level of this dungeon, the possibility of adventurers who are realists entering this dungeon is really low.

At least, that's what King-sama said.

What's more, the danger of dungeons are also recommended by the Guild, and the adventurers themselves should understand it as common sense.

Not knowing the danger of the dungeon, plus not knowing how much money can you earn from such a newly made dungeon, there's no reason to come all the way here.

....However, because no one rarely goes for it, there are those people who act without permission just to seek profit from the dungeon, so it isn't strange if someone has already explored the dungeon.

Hence with all these circumstances, it's as Sylphy said, it's hard to investigate what happened.

「.....Don't tell me....it's the Demon.」

Out of a sudden, Aisha spoke. Despite whispering, the voice reverberate throughout the surroundings.

.....Demon.

If this is really the work of the Demon.....I'm afraid that if we want to capture this dungeon, we might have to fight against it.

「.....Since the boss was defeated, I wonder how long it'll take for the boss to respawn?」

Right, it is a rather important information to get on how long it takes for the boss to spawn after it's defeated.

For example, if it's 5 minutes.....and the door closes, then that means the Demon is 5 minutes away from us.

Which meant that we must be mentally prepared for whatever situation that we might be facing after this boss fight, there might be a possibility that we're gonna face against the Demon.

「.....Hmmm, it depends on the dungeon.....But I think that this dungeon would take a longer time.」

With a much higher experience in exploring dungeons, Aisha told us her opinion.

「.....This dungeon? Why though? Is it different from the rest of the dungeons?」

「Apparently, the time it takes for a boss to spawn depends on the amount of mana stored inside a dungeon. The more mana, the faster it is for the boss to spawn.....This Dungeon was recently made right? So it is still in a state in which mana isn't accumulated in huge quantity. As even with Waffle's senses, he couldn't feel the mana right?」

.....I see. Which means that the boss uses the mana collected from the Dungeon to spawn huh.

So she made a conclusion because of not being able to sense the mana from the dungeon.

Maybe, someone(might be the demon)...defeated the boss. Then, the Dungeon has to supply mana to spawn the boss again, so hence why we couldn't feel any mana from the dungeon?

.....No wait, however....that's different.

If that's the case, then why is there no mana inside the monsters living here?

....Not good, I can't be thinking about these at a time like this.

I must be serious about thinking of a way to stop the Demon that might or might not be here.

Taking Aisha's word, we might not meet with the Demon anytime soon.

However, there isn't any physical evidence to support that either. Maybe the Demon might be even nearer as we speak.

「.....Let's assume that the Demon is inside here. So if we meet with it, everyone please have plenty of distance against it okay? I'll fight it with all I got.」

『Wafu! Myne, I'll also fight with you!』

『Onii-sama, me too! Kyu~』

It might be good for Waffle and Kuu to help along.....

However, if it's that person.....even Waffle and Kuu might be in danger against that.

I would wish if they would keep a distance and let me fight with all I got.

『Both of you, we'll think about it after seeing our opponent, but before that could you leave it to me first?』

『!!! Wafu!?』

『!!!! Kyu Kyu Kyu!?』

Both of them probably didn't think that I would refuse them, as they were in a state of surprise.

『Don't worry, it's just the start. I'll ask for help if I see the need!』

After that, I explained the danger of that man who seemed to be a Demon when I was at the back of Jormungandr-sama, and managed to convince them somehow.

....Well then, will the Demon really appear? Or will he not? (Find out in the next episode of DRAGON BALL Z!!!)

Let's thread carefully from here on out.

Translation Note: To those who might be confused from the first floor and basement first floor, think of it as the first floor as like the entrance and the basement first floor as the second floor. Seems like the Author wanted to go by that instead. I don't know why he couldn't just put first floor, second floor, third floor etc... because it confuses the heck outta me when he said first floor and basement first floor, something like Ground and Lower Ground...

Proofread: Shiro

As the odds of encountering with the Demon would be high, we stayed vigilant and moved at a speed in which we would be careful of our surroundings.

Reason being we have to consider the dangers of any surprise attacks.

I was also the same, but everyone else's expression tighten as well.

「.....Alright for now, let's move to the stone monument.」

Proceeding onward to the boss room, there was a huge stone monument behind the boss room, similar to the other boss rooms in other Dungeons.

Once you touched the stone monument, you would be able to freely teleport to other stone monuments inside this dungeon.

Even though we weren't the ones who defeated the boss, and we were a little curious about it, but since it was right in front of us, so might as well let all of us touch the stone monument.

I could technically move around with my 【Unique Magic・Spacetime】, but at the off chance something happens, then I could be prepared to use it as emergency.

Even though I felt that there is no need to have an alternative method, but the idea should not be dismissed as well.

「.....Everyone has touched the stone monument? Alright, let's head onto the next floor.」

Confirming that everyone has touched it, we began to move onto the next floor.

.....Oh right, in the end we did not get to fight with it, but surely the boss of this room is a Slime right?

Fundamentally speaking, the Dungeon's boss would be a superior species of that floor's monsters.

So following that theory, one might think that the first floor boss would be a superior version of the White Slime.

Thus far, the skills and items that the boss has were all pretty good.

What's more, the White Slimes themselves have their Race Skill, a special skill indeed. Honestly speaking....I had my curiosity in it.

Tonight, before we leave, should I go and have a peek on whether the boss has respawn or not?

#The new Dungeon, Basement First Floor

Well then, we have finally arrived at the basement first floor.....

I wonder what awaits us at this floor.....What sort of monsters would there be.

Now that I think about it, the Dungeon of Power's first floor did have Slimes as their monster.

I know it couldn't be a coincidence but, the Dungeon of Power had Goblin and Orc on their second floor.

.....Don't tell me, this Dungeon is the same as well?

If the monsters get stronger by each floor, then it's true that the Goblins and Orcs are at just the right level to be in.....

Well anyways, it's not like a terribly strong monster would roam here.

『Waffle, how about this floor? Can you sense any Mana?』

『.....Wafu, I can't. I can't sense anything at all.』

I see.....we have discussed about it back at the first floor, and hypothesized that because the boss was defeated, the mana stored in the Dungeon has to be used to respawn the boss.

Of course, there is not much credibility to this as there are no monsters with mana wandering around, so we don't know whether our hypothesis is true or not.....

The only thing we knew is that someone defeated the boss at floor 1.

And, we have theorized that it was the Demon that did so and is still inside this Dungeon.

So if he defeated the boss here, I'm sure he'll dive into B2 and fight with the boss as well.

「.....What exactly is going on here.」

While talking to myself, Aisha patted on my shoulder lightly.

「Being impatient is forbidden okay Myne-kun. I'm sure once we reach the end, we'll find out more about it. However, if we move impatiently, we might be careless and make mistakes okay.」

「Well put Aisha, it's as she said Danna-sama. Let's move forward while being firm. It's alright, we're all here with you.」

.....That's true. What both of them said were right.

Perhaps hearing about the possibility of there being a Demon here, I have gotten slightly nervous about it.

Moreover, it's not like there's proof that there's a Demon here. At best it's just a possibility, that's it.

It might also be that some normal adventurers have come to explore. Rather, isn't the latter one much more believable?

『Myne, I'm here with you too, so don't worry~』

『KyuKyu! That's right! Onii-sama!』

This time it was Waffle and Kuu who cheered me up.

Yes, I wasn't like who I used to be. I have such a reliable family right now.

Get a hold of yourself Myne! !

「Thank you everyone.....」

After everyone cheered for me, my heart seems to have calmed down somewhat.

After recovering, we began exploring floor B1.

Similar to how we did at 1F, Aisha would map the area, and locate where the boss room is.

There's a possibility that we would change our course depending on what kind of skill the monsters have on this floor.....

.....Ugh, a group of monsters.....

Name: Faithfulness • Lion

LV: 16

Race: Lion race (or maybe a Felidae?)

Gender: ♂

【Skill】

Strong Arms • Extreme

Cooperation • Telepathy (Short)

【Ability】

Biting

.....Wow, it's a White Lion. I had no idea there would be a lion inside a dungeon.

At first it looked fierce, but when I saw the skills.....Eh! ? What !?

【Cooperation・Telepathy (Short)】: Those who have this skill could telepathically talk to each other. However, the range is limited to a 3 metre radius.

It's a skill that doesn't lose out against the White Slime, another special skill....

Even though the range is limited, but it's basically the same as the 【Divine Beast Protection】 and the 【Divine Beast Contract】 skill....

「Nn, Danna-sama? What's the matter?」

Looking at the White Lion's skills, Sylphy looked at me who was staring blankly asked.

「.....Ah, I was just looking at the White Lion's skills, and was slightly surprised.」

「What sort of skills?」

This time it was Aisha.

「There's a skill called 【Cooperation・Telepathy(Short)】.....」

「「Te, telepathy you say! ? (you said! ?)」」

The both of them were in perfect harmony. Well, it's normal to be surprised.....

「.....By telepathy, you mean the same protection and contract as Fenrir-sama?」

「Maybe.....please wait for a moment. Let me cut it.」

There were 4 White Lions in total. So we could paste it on all 4 of us and test it.

By the way, I've heard this from Brother-san about the Lion Race.

That the 【Telepathy】 skill that they have is more of a necessity.

Logically speaking, the Lion Race would not move by themselves. They will surely move in packs.

And in that pack, there would be one male, and the rest is always made up of females, as it seems to be a race who builds harem as we commonly describe as.

Then, to them hunting is also something common, they wouldn't fight by themselves, but instead take in position and aim at multiple single target preys.

In other words, to them fighting together is like eating rice together everyday.

So in order to smoothly cooperate together, they needed an effective skill to make it work. Hence why they need the telepathy skill, and after listening to what Brother-san said, it kind of made sense.

「.....Alright, I've already pasted it on Sylphy, Aisha, and Kuu and Waffle.」

Thus I pasted to all of our members.

Especially to Kuu, as only Waffle and I could converse with her.

If we use this skill, then we don't need Cetus-sama's protection and would still be able to converse with Kuu.

「Alright, me and Waffle would go and defeat the lions, so in the meantime could you test talking with Kuu.」

After leaving with that, Waffle and I went ahead to the pack and started battling.

『Wafufufu! ! ! !』

Waffle seemed strangely surprised. Perhaps the lion was also walking in all fours, making him have an opposing heart.

While we were running, I activated 【King's intimidation】 on the pack of lions, and all four of them were paralyzed.

Then Waffle went ahead first, and used 【Divine Beast Double Attack】 onto the lions.

I too used 【Strong Arms•Extreme】 and 【Arm Strengthening•Extreme】, and attacked the lions who couldn't move. Waffle who went ahead had already defeated 3 of them, and I defeated 1 of it, and with that the battle was over.

Well then, I wonder if they have used 【Telepathy】?

Waffle and I then slowly walked back to where they were.

「How is it? Can you hear Kuu?」

After annihilating the herd of White Lions, Waffle and I decided to go back to my wives.

As I see it, Kuu was dancing around happily in the air, so I guess the conversation using 【Telepathy】 was a success?

「Yeah, it's perfect! I've always thought that it didn't matter so as long as we're together, but it's still nice that we can talk! It's like I feel more closer to Kuu!」

Sylphy excitedly answered me.

Well, I do understand Sylphy's delight. As Kuu and Sylphy often took baths together because they both love taking a hot bath.

If asked whether Syphy or Aisha is on good terms with Kuu, it will definitely be Sylphy. That doesn't mean Aisha isn't close with Kuu.

Even though they couldn't talk with each other, they were already on good terms, so I'm glad that they could finally speak with each other.

However, as I've expected, I could not hear the conversation between Kuu and Sylphy.

Of course I have not pasted 【Telepathy】 onto myself.

So I can't understand what my wives are talking about.

.....But, I have 【Cetus's Protection】 on me.

In other words, I can normally talk with Kuu telepathically. Does that mean by having the same telepathy can we only talk with Kuu? What a surprising finding this was, it seems like my thoughts were too narrow.

For now, I finally knew how to use this 【Telepathy】 skill even better.

I do wish to collect more of this skill if possible.

As after we capture this Dungeon, I might not get the chance again.

Fortunately, the Lion race doesn't move in solitude like the White Slime.

They will always move in packs, so like just now, it'll be easier to get 3~5 skills per encounter, so it wouldn't take long like yesterday.

「Phew, we finally reached the boss room.」

Just as Aisha completed the drawings of the map, we have finally arrived at floor B1's boss room.

.....Similar to floor 1, after drawing the entire map could we find the boss room.....are we really that unlucky.....?

Nonetheless, I've collected a ton of skills, so it was way quicker progress than what we did yesterday.

「.....As expected, the door to the boss room is open.....」

Seeing the huge door being wide open, I sighed.

....Is this really the work of the Demon?

「Hey, Myne-kun.....I just thought of this out of the blue.....But is this really the work of the Demon?」

Looking at the same door as I am, Aisha spoke.....Why the sudden change of mind?

There is a possibility that it's not the Demon.....Rather it's some random adventurers who'd stumbled upon this place.....

「Hm? Aisha, did you perhaps found out about something?」

Sylphy then asked Aisha about it.

「Myne-kun, Hime-sama.....this is an if, just a guess okay? If this is the work of the Demon, then why would he want to explore this Dungeon?」

.....Hmm, what does she mean by that? Since the Dungeon leads downwards, of course he has to go down right?

While I was thinking as such, this time Sylphy shouted and answered Aisha.

「.....! !! see now! It's as Aisha said. It is weird!」

Hmmm??.....Wait, what could it be?

.....Wait a minute.....Going down.....going...down?.....Aaaaahhhhh! !! I see now, so that's what she was trying to say!

That's right, it is indeed weird! !!If this is the work of the Demon then going down would be weird!

.....Cause the whole reason why a Dungeon was made is because the Demon was the one planting the core from the get go.

And where the core was planted....is in the inner depths of the Dungeon!

Which means, you must go up no matter what!

Which meant, defeating the boss and moving forward, the possibility of it being an adventurer is even higher.

.....However, who could it be.....?I have only been enrolled in the Adventurer's Guild for a day, so I have no idea which adventurer went in.

Suffice it to say, the only person I got involved was Fjord and Lyle. However, they are already not adventurers. So there's no point coming here.

「.....Aisha, do you happen to know who they might be?」

Since Aisha was a former receptionist working in the Adventurer's Guild, she should know a lot of them.

Maybe she could already make some guesses on who some of them might be.

「Hmmm, I can't think of it right now....The adventurers are usually tough and simple minded people, and they're pretty calculative too. So with a new dungeon, besides people like us who received a request to go for it, I'm sure no one else would bother coming here.」

I knew it.....Even Aisha doesn't know about it either.

Then, it's pretty hard to guess what their objective is.

If only we knew who came here, then we can imagine what we can do.

「Well, whatever it is. It's not like the possibility is zero, but it really brings a big relief to everyone right? If it's not the Demon, and adventurers then we don't have to worry much.」

Sylphy does have a point.....

However, that doesn't mean we can afford to be careless after knowing that.

.....Anyways, since the boss has been defeated, we can safely capture the dungeon and not have to fight with the Demon if it's the adventurers. We have a friendlier route if that's the case.

I don't know when they will get in contact with us, so even if we actually meet with them, we should be prepared to make some countermeasures so as to not be too careless.

.....Although I gave myself various restrictions, I still lost to Brother-san.

Also, when I was training together with King-sama's Konoe Knights Division, I have learned various things.

Combat experience and intuition are both equally important in a battle which in some cases can exceed the power of skills.

Hence why, even if the chance of the Demon appearing is lower and adventurer being higher, we still have to be vigilant.

「Un, you're right. However, let's still explore with caution. It's true that this Dungeon is still recent, but that doesn't mean there aren't any Demons. Plus we can't let down our guard even if it's adventurers.....」

After all, during the first floor nad B1 floor, we were fighting only thinking that the Demon was wandering around, but now that there is a high possibility of encountering the said adventurer around the next floor.

For now, let's enter the boss room while it's still open and see what's inside.

「.....Yeap, there's no boss. I wonder if the boss is the highest tier of the Lion race?」

Maybe I can try fighting this boss tomorrow after everyone goes home.

Somehow, I feel like it would drop some good items.

All of us touched the stone monument of the boss room.

Similar to the first floor, we felt weird that we didn't fight anything and get to just move forward.

Well, onto the next level, which is B2 we go.

TLN Note: Sorry for the late post, was so engrossed in a game till I didn't see the time XD

Proofread: Shiro

#New Dungeon, Basement 2nd floor

『Waffle, how is it here? Can you feel anything?』

After coming to floor B2, just to make sure, I asked Waffle whether he could sense any mana in this floor.

『!!! Wafu! Myne, Myne! I can feel the mana! There's a lot even!』

!!!!

After coming down to the 3rd floor, we finally sensed some mana.

Perhaps the boss hasn't been defeated yet!

『Waffle! Do you know where the boss room is?』

After asking Waffle, he wagged his tail violently.

I guess since Waffle could finally sense some mana, so his tension has been risen.

『Leave it to me! I will definitely find it!』

「.....It's finally time for the show to begin.」

Touching the hilt of Linus's Sword, Sylphy answered.

Kuu who was behind with Aisha also smiled at us.

No matter what, we will blast through this floor!

For ordinary adventurers, it's really hard to pinpoint the exact location of the boss room as per how we do it.

Well, maybe if they have the skill 【Awareness・L】, they might be able to do it, but it's not entirely certain that you can find the exact location of the boss room, as I've tested it before.

Only because of Waffle's help could we head straight towards the boss room.

Even if there were monsters roaming around that had some good skills, we'll ignore them for the time being.

As there should be no problem to identify and pick their skill up after we defeat the boss.

If that can't be done, I could just come here at night to get them.

It's better for us to head straight to the boss room before someone else heads there first.

『Myne! I've found it! It's over there!』

『That's awesome, Waffle!』

After saying that, Waffle's tails wagged with excitement.

Yeap, I'm truly grateful from the bottom of my heart! Thanks, Waffle.

With Waffle leading the way, we started our journey.

「Myne-kun! There's monsters!」

Aisha pointed at the direction, where there were a few monsters gathered.

.....The monsters in this floor are....Bees! ? And as expected the bees are white in colour.

Name: Faithfulness ▪ Bee

LV: 20

Race: Insect family

Gender: –

【Skill】

Guaranteed hit

【Ability】

Poison Needle

Paralysis Needle

.....Hmm, 【Guaranteed Hit】. I guess it's as what the skill says.

It's a skill that can be used, but maybe it's enough to just collect them and move on?

If it's the same with 【Physical Attack Nullifier(5/5)】 then we can just come back again and get it? But then again, it's not like there must be a limit to its usage for me to come back here and get them.

First, let's just 【Cut】 all of their skills.....But they are Bees, just a swarm of bees has like 20 of them....Phew.

.....Alright, that's okay. I want to shorten our time as much as possible. So let's just use magic to burn them all up.

「I'm gonna use magic to wipe them all!」

With 【Wide Area Magic・Maximum Wind】 and 【Wide Area Magic・Maximum Fire】, I casted it onto the White Bees.

An intense roar sound came from that side, and the swarm of bees burned up, falling down like raindrops.

「Alright, let's hurry!」

After all of them were confirmed dead, as I said and ran, but Aisha was staring at me and said.

「.....Myne-kun, that's a little too much.....」

Uuu.....W, well it is kinda overkill to be using such strong magic on a Level 20 opponent....

But I want to shorten our time to get there....

「Th, there's not enough time! There's no choice! No choice!」

.....Let's give an excuse for now.

「I know that we don't have much time....but after using such fancy magic, the surrounding monsters would hear that noise, then wouldn't we waste more time?」

Th, that's true! ?

「This is different from the time when we were in the Dungeon of Power, so be more mindful okay?」

「.....Yes.....」

If what Aisha said that it would attract the other monsters, then it would also notify the adventurers that are inside here that we're here.

.....If they did notice that we're here, then it is my fault.

I have to move much more carefully. Un, I have to be mindful.

「.....Thank you, Aisha.」

After thanking Aisha, we continued onward to the boss room.

Along the way we encountered the White Bees, but this time I used 【Support Magic•Sleep】 on them to prevent a fight.

With that we won't make any sound, and since our level differences were too big, just one of our party alone could destroy them in a minute.

Again I used sleep on the White Bees, and the floors were filled with them.....Could this be like moving in secret.

Occasionally we would have to defeat a huge swarm of them, but that meant I can 【Cut】 all of their skills.

Thus I pasted all the skills onto my party, with the ability 【Poison Needle】 and 【Paralysis Needle】 on Waffle and Kuu. I'm not sure if they'll use it right away, but if something like the Black Dragon case were to happen again, maybe there comes a time they might need to use it.

『Myne, we're going to arrive!....However, it seems like someone else is there.』

.....! Did we not make it! Even though we're this close! ?

With Waffle words, I too used 【Awareness・L】 and asked the direction that Waffle was saying.

Awareness.....Is this the mana....It's quite huge, and it's being annihilated.

3 person.....4, 5, 6, 7.....14 of them? Wait, what the heck is this....why is awareness acting so weird?

Instead of a human it's more like monsters? Or is it the boss?....No, the boss's presence is slightly different.

I wonder what is going on over there?

...Whatever it is, it seems like they have already started a battle with the boss.

「It's as Waffle said, there is a group of people inside....which are fighting the boss right now.」

「.....I see, so we didn't make it in time.」

Sylphy said with a hint of disappointment.

「However, isn't it great? It seems like they aren't Demons! So let's look at it positively.」

Aah, it's as Aisha said.

This presence is without a doubt the Hume Rae.

.....However, I could feel some monster presence beside them too.

Is it that the boss could separate itself?

For now, there's no point talking about it. It's not like we can go in mid battle and see, so let's just rest for now. We'll think about it as we move on.

「....As expected, the door is locked.」

I tried going to the front of the door and pushed it.

Since now there's a battle going on, the door won't open. However, if the boss is not there, then the door will open by itself.

「So how now? Myne-kun.」

「Hmm, it's completely closed. Seems like they're battling the boss now.」

「....Can't be help, let's move to the side and rest for the time being.」

We sat near a wall, and Waffle climbed on my lap and slept.

Normally at the entrance of the boss room, it is deemed as a safety zone. So hence why Waffle could sleep in relief.

Looking beside me, I could see Kuu floating back and forth between my two wives.

Seems like they're having a conversation telepathically. It looks like fun as they were laughing.

While stroking the head of Waffle, I also relaxed.

It was truly a relief that it wasn't the Demon, but a bunch of Hume race.

The tense part of my body was slowly loosening up as well.

Although it's better to be tense, but it's also better to clear yourself out of that feeling once in a while.

After around 20 minutes have passed.

The door to the boss room abruptly opened with a squeak noise.

Aah, seems like it's over.

And I guess the adventurers have already descended down to the next floor....

「Well, shall we chase after them?」

I slowly rise myself and pat my but from the dust.

Aisha and Sylphy did the same as they got up and stepped into the boss room after me.

「.....Th, this is.....what in the!?!」

「.....Th, this is.....what in the!?!」

The figure of one adventurer who was covered in blood and collapsed was seen when we peeked inside the boss room.

「Myne-kun! ? Quickly heal him!」

Aisha answered before I could say anything, as she hurriedly ran towards the adventurer.

After finally processing Aisha's response, I ran there as well.

「Hey get it together! I'll heal you right now!」

Aisha activated 【Magic・Recovery L】. However, the damage that the adventurer took did not recover the slightest.

Alright, I'll add on to Aisha's 【Magic・Recovery L】.

【Height of Magic】: When magic is being used, it will automatically be activated. The magic power will increase by five times.

Normally I would only use this on attack based magic, but recovery magic would be affected by 【Height of magic】 as well.

At least it'll help out.

『Myne, why don't you just use 【Regeneration】?』

Remembering the fight with the Black Dragon, I used 【Regeneration】 on Waffle who was on the verge of death. As he saw us using 【Magic・Recovery L】, he asked.

『It's gonna be troublesome to explain if I used it on someone who we're not close to. It's true that we want to save this person, but I would prioritize keeping my skill a secret over that.』

It might be cold of me to say that.....However, it's something I will not yield.

It's true that if I were to use 【Regeneration】 or 【Super Regeneration】 here, I'll without a doubt save this person's life.

But.....the problem is after I save this person.

For now, it's for certain I would save this person.

And this person's wounds looked fatal as well.....

And it's obvious that Aisha and I knew it was severe as we were the ones healing.

If this person is a good person, I'm sure they would not tell anyone about it, but after leaving this dungeon, it's not certain that this person might not tell it to their friends and families.

Perhaps it's just a way of saying thank you.....

However, to us it's extremely troublesome. Even though I said that I'll help someone, but in the end I'm not proud of myself because of this dilemma.

Another point would be, if this person's personality is bad, example a wicked person, then things would get even more complicated.

They would surely want to dig deeper, and hear more about the skills.

Obviously we will not say anything. However, for these kinds of people, if things do not proceed as desired, they will try to find other ways to find out about it.

Even though we want to save a life, but because of this stressful burden, it's also driven into a dilemma.

Thus, in order to not have this happen in the future, it's better not to use 【Regeneration】 or 【Super Regeneration】 on anyone else other than my friends and families.

So after explaining it to Waffle in a simple way, Waffle just answered 「There are, humans that are bad, too.」 and was somehow convinced. I'm sure he remembered the time when those adventurers tried to capture them inside the Spirit Forest.

「.....Uuu.....」

Oh? Is he regaining conscious?.....Wait, huh? Where have I seen him before? Who was it again?

While I was trying to recall who this was, suddenly Kuu shouted !

『Aaaaaaah! ? Onii-sama! Chunsuke, chunsuke is~~~~! Please help him~~~~~!
!』

Chunsuke?.....Wait a minute, it feels like I've heard of that name before.

『Wa, Wafu~~~~~! ? This, this is Chunsuke's Master!?!』

I have no idea what's going on.....But for now, let's head to where Kuu is!

After heading to where Kuu is, I saw a sparrow like monster laying on the floor covered in blood.

It was still shaking, and it was still breathing. I can still save it!

Using 【Magic・Recovery L】 on it, I hurriedly took out something from my storage bag as well.

From within there was a pebble with 【Super Regeneration】 pasted on it, and I pasted it on the injured sparrow.

If the person is a monster, then there's no problem letting it know of my skill.

If they don't have the 【Telepathy】 skill, then there's no one to tell to.

Well just in case, I used 【Appraisal】 on it, and it doesn't seem like it has the skill 【Telepathy】.

What's more, with this monster's condition, it was even worse than the other person as if I did not use 【Super Regeneration】 on it, it might end up dying. Seeing Kuu's worried expression, I immediately used it without a second thought.

With white smoke covering the body, indicating that the regeneration process is starting, Chunsuke's(?) injured area started recovering.

『As expected of Onii-sama! Chunsuke is alive!』

No wait, Kuu.....It's not like he's dead yet.....

After confirming that the wound was healed, I 【Cut】 the 【Super Regeneration】 from it and pasted it back to the pebble.

Just in case I used 【Magic・Recovery L】 on it still, before it started flapping its birds and flew upwards.

「Chun, Chu~n!」

Alright, seems like it was completely healed!

「KyuKyuKyu!」

「ChunChunChun.」

「Wafu, Wafufu, Wafu?」

「Chun, chun, chuchu~n! !」

....My gosh, I have no idea what they are saying if I don't have telepathy.

For now, I'll head over to the adventurer's side and see how things are going on there.

「How is he?」

After asking Aisha, she responded with 「I was able to only save his life」.

His life only (.....)? What does that mean?

「Inside his body is poisoned.....? I can't make a clear analysis, but it feels like something that isn't supposed to be in his body is there? And there are some parts that recovery magic can't pass through, so I can't completely heal him.」

I remember seeing this symptom before.

At that time, an adventurer called a Saint.....someone that was acquainted to Aisha who she was healing. Aisha also used 【Magic・Recovery L】 on her, but Saint-san has a recovery skill much higher level than that.

「.....Uuu, so it's you guys who saved me.....」

Aah, he's recovered to the point where he can speak.

.....Wait a minute, I know who he is now!? Isn't he one of the Clan:Tamer Rings guy!? He was together with Tales when he walked into our Clan House.

Now that I think about it, Waffle and co also said something like 『It's chunsuke's master』!

What the, why is this guy over here, and also on the verge of death! ?

.....No, wait a minute. Don't tell me, those person who went ahead of us....

It wasn't the Guild's adventurers, but the Clan: Tamer Ring!?

I see, now that 【Awareness・L】 made sense, as there are monsters together with them!

If I think of them as their tamed monsters, then it isn't weird at all.

However, why do these Tamer Ring gang have anything to do with exploring the new dungeon? And King-sama only appointed us to do this request....

For now, let's ask the person himself.

「...Uhhh, are you one of the Tamer Ring?」

As I asked, chunsuke's master strongly nodded.

So it really was the guy from before.

「Why are you here though? And where did your other teammates went? Even though you almost died, they are nowhere to be found?」

Well I did confirm that his teammates have went down one floor with 【Awareness・L】.

However, I can't reveal this card to this guy.

It's better to act as though I have no idea.

「.....If it's them, they're already long gone, they left me here and went ahead.」

With hatred, chunsuke's master said and spat.

Fumu, I wonder if they've broken up their teams. I mean with how that Tale is, I'm sure it was entirely possible.....

Apparently, this Chunsuke's master is called Kappore. And although I would politely talk to him because he is older than me, but after the Clan House incident, I decided to abandon the politeness. (TLN: Kappore, or Black jack, a fish apparently?)

After hearing Kappore talk about the situation, it seems like quite a few surprising things were discovered.

Author's Note: There are some cruel portrayal in this chapter, so for those light hearted ones, do be cautioned.

Extremely Important Announcement: I apologize to everyone who was reading or those who want to read it could not access to my website, as I have recently changed to a new hosting server, and not under wordpress anymore, a lot of things were done and as such some error occurred. So the 3 chapters that I've posted previously were all gone, 2 Cut&Paste chapters and Level 1 Guy chapter. Once again I will have to post them again so if you receive that in your email and have read it, please ignore it. Again, my galaxy brain was too smart that I posted the chapters all at the old wp-admin site and didn't think to realize that I should import those files first before the domain moves to the new hosting server, oh well.

My name's Tales.

Once a former B Class adventurer turned to the representative of the Clan 「Tamers Ring」, acknowledged by the Kingdom of Augustus.

The main objective of 「Tamers Ring」 is to go around the world and tame any rare monsters that exists.

In fact, we've already successfully tamed quite a few rare monsters. And those tamed monsters that we've gotten, turned out to be quite useful.

There are many cases where there are lacking in people or if you're in a dangerous place, in a sense, the impossible would turn into a possibility with these monsters.

Hence why, many people wanted a huge collection of these tamed monsters.

Besides finding and gathering all these rare monsters, things like Clans or parties have nothing to do with us Tamers Ring.

That's why the nobles and royal families think that we are useful.

For quite awhile, the Tamers Ring has been one of the 3 biggest Clans in the kingdom.

And right now, I was now leaving the capital to grab a new guy who is inside the Town of Lucas.

Apparently the new guy's name Kappore, and has graduated from the Town of Lucas.

The plan was to initially guide him....but this guy, had some pretty interesting stories awaiting for me.

Apparently, at the back of Lucas, there is a forest where a never before seen monster resides.

A purplish wolf and a pink fish that floats around were apparently spotted.....

.....It certainly sounds rare just from the description. And we have to get them in our hands as soon as possible.

Conveniently, I had some business in the Town of Lucas as well.

As there was a new Clan being introduced, the location of the ceremony was surprisingly at the Town of Lucas.

What's more, the representative is the husband of the First Princess Sylphid, so I guess he was backed up by the royal family. So as the representative of one of the 3 big clans, I have to go and visit there no matter what.

「.....I see, I will head there tomorrow at once.」

Hm? Isn't that Aldo. As a soon to be King, why would he come to such a suburban area.

What is happening here? No matter how much connections you have with the royal family, ain't this just preferential treatment?

Plus they were just recently created, it's like they are getting the same treatment as us 3 big clans.

.....And, who's that? Who's that brat that Aldo's talking to?

「.....However, I wonder if the request this time is safe. Even if it's you guys, to capture a dungeon.....isn't the level a tad bit too difficult?」

「It's alright, Brother-san! Thank you so much for worrying about me though.」

.....Capturing a dungeon, and also “Brother-in-Law-san”?

To call Aldo Brother.....I see, so it's that brat Myne who recently married off Sylphid. What the heck, isn't he just some small brat.

.....This kind of brat married off Sylphid? If it's this kind of brat, it's better for me to marry her instead.

「Father also said that if it's slightly further away from the capital, then the danger wouldn't be that high....」

.....Hmm, I see.

So it was a direct request from the King to the 「Eternal Sunflower」 to capture the dungeon.

Tsk, these fuckers. What good status to get a request via connections.

But, to hear that there's a dungeon near the capital, I wonder where that is? If we're talking the closest dungeon, it's the Dungeon of Power.....

「Tales-sama! I finally got it! A dungeon has been discovered just west of the capital, and it takes about half a day to get there.」

After hearing from Aldo about the dungeon, it seems like the adventurers guild have publicly announced it as well, so we got the information immediately.

「Hm, so a newly born dungeon. It's true that for regular adventurers, it has no meaning.」

Since there's not much information to be had on a new dungeon, there's not much merit in exploring it.

It's not as though the possibility to get rich quick isn't there, but for the adventurers standpoint, it's better to hold back instead of getting themselves in danger.

....However, we're the Tamers Ring, for us the merits are huge. A newly born Dungeon, to us is a higher chance of meeting with new monsters.

Even if it's not a new species, we can also sell them to the rich people at a higher price if there are any subspecies.

In other words, if that brat is going there as well, I could you know, kill him by surprise. Well it is a common story that adventurers die from an accident when they're exploring in the dungeon.

Since we've decided as such, we have to hurry.

If we don't get ahead of them, we can't surprise attack them.

「Alright, you guys! We'll be heading to the new dungeon soon. Get ready in 5 minutes!」

Kukuku, this is becoming rather interesting. You're gonna get it, Myne boy.

I will show you exactly what it means to be a senior in a Clan when it comes to a real battle.

「Tsk, what's this. They're all white in colour, but ain't that the Royal•Bee!？」

They certainly have some nasty attack method. They have a needle containing a fairly powerful poison....and they pack a punch.

This is bad, usually they are monsters that is encountered in places where there are many obstacles for them like in a forest.

However, there's nothing of that sorts, so its fighting area has widen.

Moreover, it is a monster of a rare category.

Even if 【Tame•Extreme】, I have to weaken it before I can tame it.

「Ganda, Uppek! Use your Dragon Flies and cast Wind Magic from a distance! Kappore! Come next to me! Also your sparrow too!」

The monsters that I brought were only the Dark Spirit and the Black High Wolf. The Black high Wolf is bad against the Royal•Bee as it moves in high speed in the air.

What's more, the dark spirit can't do much in this situation either. The attacks of the dark spirit mostly appeals to other spirits. So it is not very effective against insect-based monsters.

Sleep would probably work in this situation, but I'm not sure whether it'll be effective as it moves so quickly.

「Kiriji, use your Rock Bird and the Mandragora. Use the 【Sleep Wave】 on that bastards in the air! Do the same to any of the others too! If there's a chance we'll fight!」

For now we have to use everything to fight with them.

I will also use the dark spirit to move around and try to make the Royal • Bees sleep.

「....It's not working Tales-san! It's are moving too fast! The Dragonfly can't keep up with it!」

Ganda began to whine.

「Stupid bastard! Stop fucking whining, just go and attack them!」

.....Wit, wait a second....this is bad, this is really bad!? That stance of the Royal • Bee is.....!!!

「Kiriji, Po~n, get away from there ! ! !」

「Eh?」

....It was too late.....

A huge amount of needles(Most likely poisoned)....Has rained down on Kiriji and Pon's direction.

Naturally, there was no way to avoid it, by the time the needles ended....They were covered in blood, and the two fell down and rolled over.

While we were stunned by the horrifying death of Kiriji and Pon, the Royal • Bee descended on the two bodies and stabbed them using its butt.

「.....H, How could it.....」

Kappore was looking from beside, then vomited.

Yes, the Royal ▪ Bee is sucking out their body fluids.

Every time it was being sucked, their bodies were steadily becoming dry.

Then, after completely sucking them dry, the Royal ▪ Bee once again soar up into the sky.

Damn it! But, I finally understood the weakness of that attack.

.....The next time he uses that attack, it will be this fucking bugs end.

After watching Kappore who was still vomiting, I give instructions to the clan members.

「Listen here! If it shows that weird stance again, that attack will come again! So immediately leave from that spot!」

Because they heard my orders, that bastard started using that attack again.

....The target was apparently me.

Kappore was still vomiting like crazy and doesn't seem to notice the actions yet.....Sorry, please die for me.

I grabbed the head of Kappore and threw it between me just before the Royal Bee releases the attack.

「Wh, what the!? What are you doing Tales-san!?!」

I saw it a minute ago, that bastard would use the poison needle to fire at the first person who lands first.

In other word, if Kappore eats the first shot, then I should be able to escape.

「Guaaaaaaaaa! ! ! ! How can this! ! ! ! This is not fair, Talessss!!!!」

After the poison needle was released, that bee bugger will stop.

「Go! Dark Spirit! Make that bee fall asleep! !」

Hm? The tamed monster of Kappore, why would you dive into the poisoned needle?

Aah, it's trying to save it's master....What a beautiful master-slave relationship, Kukuku.

Kappore and its sparrow crumbled down the ground, and that moment.

My dark spirit succeeded in making the Royal • Bee fall asleep.

「.....Ain't that good, you didn't get your body sucked by it, Hahaha.」

Alright, now that it's asleep, time to tame it.

If I tame this guy, I would be able to unlock its royal jelly, which fetches a high price in the market.

There were not many sacrifices, but it can't be help. Nothing compensates for anything, and no reward is available.

Alright, now that I've tamed the boss, will they be defeated?

Well for now, let's head down to the next floor.

TLN Note: Phew, so much fire translating this chapter

.....As a person, this Tales guy is really a horrible person than I'd imagined him to be.

Since I've heard his side of the story, what should we do after this.

To complete the request that King-sama has sent to us, obviously we have to continue forward.

However, that guy.....it's not good of him to leave Kappore-san behind.

No matter how much he hates others, how could he make such an inhumane decision as to leave his teammate behind.

.....Perhaps we could bring this person by using 【Unique Magic・Spacetime】 and allow him to escape.....but that is something not possible.

「Sigh, what should we do now.」

As they understood the reason why I sighed, Sylphy and Aisha both looked at each other and me before smiling bitterly.....I'm sure they were waiting for my decision.

.....Phew, it can't be help.

「Kappore-san, have you touched the stone monuments that were inside the boss room.....?」

「.....Yeah, of course.」

With this, at least we could teleport him all the way to the 1F then to the entrance of the dungeon.

However, the problem is right after that. Even though the dungeon is said to be near the capital, but it still takes half a day for us to travel just by a horse carriage alone.

I don't think anyone would agree on walking a person back, let alone walking back with this distance to begin with.

And it's not like we have anymore time to spare, if not it'll be harder to chase after Tales and his teammates.

「I guess we can bring you to, the front of the entrance....」

After thinking for quite some time I answered, then Kappore-san's face became red, and faced towards me and begin protesting.....No, is it better to say that he was cursing at me.

「You fuckers! Don't you even have a heart in ya! I'm heavily injured you know! You guys stupid or something? Huuh?」

Sylphy who have been looking at our conversation finally interrupted.

.....Well, I guess even she can't take it.

「You said your name's Kappore right? We have no obligations to protect you, you know that right? So, at the least, even a word of thank you should be said from you, is that right?」

It's exactly as Sylphy said.

Normally, when we save someone, the person would at least say a word of thanks.

It's not that I want the person to be thankful, but it's supposed to be common sense.

....Well then, after hearing such a sound argument, I wonder what his response is going to be?

「Huuuh? Didn't I just fucking say it! Don't you guys have a heart 'er something!」

This person, is also hopeless.....Well, can't say I expect anything from a teammate of Tales. To even give us such a bad impression, I don't know whether to just leave him here or not. I completely cannot understand this situation. This person only knows the word "himself".

「.....You, do you not even understand where your position is?」

Aah, it's Aisha's turn to cut in!

「What the hell!? You devils! Quickly bring me to the capital and heal me already! If you guys are so inexperienced to heal me, I'm sure a healer from the capital can heal me better than you!」

Even though Aisha was trying her best with her recovery magic for this person.....

Instead of even a word of gratitude, he could even say something like that.

「Myne-kun, let's just leave this(trash) here. It's just a waste of our time to talk to such an ill-mannered person.」

....Well, all of us would agree to what she said, as this is the number one choice for us.

I guess right now he can't even think straight whatsoever.

『Myne~, Chunsuke pleads that he wants us to save his master.....』

Waffle suddenly spoke to me.

After listening to Waffle speaking, I saw a sparrow flying down in front of me and bowing its head whilst trembling.

I'm sure he's heard our conversations from Waffle and Kuu.

I'm sure he knows that if we leave his master, he'll die soon.

So that's why he's desperately pleading to us right now.

.....Instead of that devil over there, his tamed monster is way more polite. Seriously, what the heck.

Seeing a desperate Chunsuke lowering his head in front of me really troubles me.

『Hmmm, what should I do.』

....In the end, we return back to the initial topic. Really, what can I do about this.

As I glanced at Aisha, she was definitely angry. Even without looking at Sylphy, I knew she was extremely frustrated as she doesn't want to be involved.

Essentially, saving her people without saying a word is what a former Princess like Sylphy should be doing.....Even if she isn't saying anything, I'm sure Sylphy is considerably angry as well.

『Onii-sama, I have a good idea!』

Aah? Kuu! Nice!

『How about, for now we bring him out! Then, until we see someone, we bring him to that person to take care!』 (TLN: Or how about we leave him here to die? An even better suggestion if I do say so myself)

I did think of that too....but, it'll still take half a day for them to get back?

And it's almost turning dark now. I think that the horse carriage won't be moving about at night?

Let's ask Kuu why she would have such a suggestion.

『Let's bring him along!』

Eh? So we're bringing him?

『It's alright if Chunsuke does his best to protect his master!』

Hmm, I wonder.....Even after seeing Chunsuke, I don't know whether he's a strong monster or not.....

At worst we might take around 6~7 hours. And if we meet a strong enemy, won't they just lose?

『Wafu! Chunsuke, is strong. So don't worry!』

Huh? Even Waffle is siding Kuu. So I guess it's alright?

....Can't be help, shall we adopt that plan?

「Sylphy, Aisha, I'm sorry.」

Since we're using 【Telepathy】 to talk, I'm sure the both of them would've heard our conversations. From their anger, I'm sure they are reluctant to go with this plan.....

In the end, the both of them did not say anything, and we quickly used the stone monument to move to the 1F.

As my wives did not even want to touch that thing, and he began complaining when I tried to carry him, so I decided to cast sleep magic on him and dragged him to the 1F.

.....Ah.

I see, while he's asleep I can just bring him to the capital now.

With him sleeping, I used 【Unique Magic・Spacetime】 to connect to the royal palace.

Then Sylphy called someone and bring him to a person to heal him.

Afterwards I have to do something in return for the Konoe Knights and Brother-san.

And I've heard from Waffle after this, but Chunsuke was thanking us towards the end.

...Well then, the initial plan is to go back home.....

But it's better to chase after Tales and his teammates.

So I want to return back to the dungeon, but what should I do.

「Myne-kun, let's just head back and rest for today. Tales and his teammates must've fought for an entire day and is tired, so I'm sure they won't be able to move on as well.」

「.....That's right, although we have to chase after them, it's not good if we get ourselves exhausted as well.

So I agree in going back as well.」

Hmm, that's right. It's not good to exhaust ourselves, and because of Kappore we're mentally tired as well. And at this kind of time, it's best to head into the bathroom and relax ourselves.

「Alright, I agree. Let's head back home.」

Proofread: Shiro

New Dungeon, Basement 3rd floor.

「What, is wrong.....with this floor.....」

When Sylphy arrived floor B3, she immediately raised her voice.

.....It can't be helped, as even I had the same thoughts as her.

The structure layout of floor B3 was something that I've never seen before when exploring a dungeon.

The moment we descended down to this floor, the thing that we saw was a 5 square meters room.

And all four corners have doors on them.

Then, when you open one of the doors, what lies before the door was yet another 5 square meters room. Then inside that room, there are 4 doors placed.....

....Yes, that was why I understood Sylphy's cries.

What that meant was whichever door you open to, you will be lead to another similar room with 4 doors.

Exactly how do we proceed from this floor.....

「.....This is a fairly dislikable floor.」

Even Aisha who was experienced as an adventurer said so.

Do monsters even spawn here? Inside this floor.....

I assume even Tales and his teammates were facing this similar situation.

『Waffle, can you sense any mana inside this floor?』

As if predicting I would say that, Waffle immediately went down on the ground and sniffed around for any mana, all with his tails wagging excitedly.

『Wafuu.....It's, somewhere around there, with mana, but.....』

This is rare of Waffle to show such a strange expression.

『Do you know where the boss room is?』

『I can't~, It's kind of, unclear, but it's being taken, I don't know~!』

Waffle then rampaged on the spot and fell on all fours.

Do we have to depend on our intuition for this floor then.....

「For now, let's work on diligently mapping this area out, so let's draw as we go.」

As I was giving out orders, Aisha placed her hands on my shoulders and started speaking.

「Wait a minute, Myne-kun. If we walk around this floor mindlessly, I'm sure we'll get lost eventually. I've heard of rumours when I was still an adventurer, and that the rooms don't connect together in a straight line like how you perceive it.」

Hm? What does that mean. Is there some special trick behind this floor?

The only thing I could think of was a monster room....

「Just now Waffle said something about 『kind of unclear, and it's being taken.』 right?...What I speculate is the 4 doors that we're looking at right now, if we do not choose the correct door, I think we will be transported back to the same area again.....This was the mechanism I've heard of from adventurers.」

What!? It's even worse than a monster room!?!?

How could you tell which is the real door though.....

「....I see, maybe what Waffle felt just now was this blurred feeling.」

For now, we have to hurry up and decide which door to take!

「Should we put a landmark for each area?」

As I suggested that, Aisha started to come up with some ideas.

First, Waffle and I will go ahead first, this is to check whether we will return back to the same area or not. So if we meet up with Aisha and the rest who were waiting at the same spot, then Aisha's theory of opening the correct door is right.

.....Then, another situation whereby we do not meet up with them even after proceeding forward. Then I will use 【Unique Magic・Spacetime】 to return back to where we first started.

「.....This certainly is a good idea, but what if 【Unique Magic・Spacetime】 doesn't bring us back to our original location?」

Somehow with this method....Whether it's magic or the level of my 【Unique Magic・Spacetime】's skill, we wouldn't know if it would fail or not.

If that were to happen, then our party might scramble apart.

「Aah, I think it would be fine, Danna-sama.」

Sylphy answered me with confidence.

.....Did she realize something?

「Since we're here right now, the stairs to go above is just behind us. So if your unique skill really failed, then we can just go up to the upper floor and meet up again.」

Aah, that makes sense. It's true that I can just use 【Unique Magic・Spacetime】 to the floor above us.

With this method, I suppose I wouldn't have to worry about us being separated?

However, what if——something were to happen. I think it's best if I leave Waffle here with them.

In terms of fighting ability, having Waffle and Kuu together would really be a better option.

We still haven't completely draw the conclusion that there would be no Demons here.

If the Demon were to meet with my wives without me being there, it'll really spell disaster.

So if Waffle and Kuu are there, then they'll do something about if such a situation were to occur.

When I conveyed my thoughts to them, Waffle immediately agreed and answered 『Wafu! Leave it to me!』.

「Well then, I'll go now. Everyone please be safe.」

Smiling bitterly, I left them and opened one of the door. Right, right, Down, Down, Left, Right, Left, Right.....was the patterned I followed when choosing which doors to open. (TLN: What kind of konami cheat code is this XD)

Along the way I would mark an area by using Lightning Edge to cut the door so I wouldn't forget. Then, after going through 10 rooms, I went into a room where my wives and pet were waiting for me.

「.....So it was as Aisha predicted.」

With this, we now know that we have to choose the correct path to lead us to the boss room.

After going through 10 rooms, the 11th room lead me back to the original room.

「Let's double confirm it again.」

Just to make sure it's true, I repeated the same thing again, so we can understand how the rules work here. I wanted to know whether it matters after the 10th room.

Beginning the 11th room, it seems like I have to go to the right room to start the next room.

After entering the 10th room, when I went south, I didn't return back to the original room.

However after entering the 12th room, I came back to the original staircase room.

「.....This, is getting more distracting.」

.....Then, I noticed something off.

Wait, wait a minute....? Why did I not see Tales here....Is it that they were progressing steadily by finding the correct door? This is bad. If I do something wrong again, they will get further away from us.

I have to understand the rules. Let's get it right in one go!

After that, I kept retrying up till I can reach the goal. I had to repeat the steps again so as to not waste any unnecessary energy.

Fortunately, as I've ran to the Dungeon of the World Tree before, I was used to this kind of marathon.

Then, repeating this marathon for around 75 times.....

Finally, I arrived at a room that wasn't alike the rest of the small rooms.

「Is this the goal?」

The feeling I got from this room is similar to the rest of the small room, but the only thing that changed was that it was larger in size.

It was a rectangular room ranging from 15 to 20 meters, and the demon like statues were installed in all four corners.

Then in the middle of the room, a huge circle was drawn.

....I carefully placed one foot on the edge circle....Yeah, nothing happened.
Well then, let's slowly walk to the center of the circle.

One step, two steps....then three steps.

After reaching the center of the circle, the situation of the room changed.

The statue of the demon which was installed on all four corners of the room started to move.

So this is a Gargoyle.....It looks fairly strong....

It is a monster who lives as a stone statue, and also appeared in the storybooks [Story of the Hero Alexandrite].

I never thought that I would be able to see the real thing with my own eyes when the only time I saw it was reading the book with my mother when I was young. The world really works in strange ways.

It had a dog like face, and a long and pointed tooth with sharp extending nails.

Huge wings were growing on its back, and it is made of sturdy stones, so it's gonna be tough to knock it down.

However the Gargoyles do not have weapons in their hands.

The weapons that we have.....whether it is a sword or a spear, its sharp and sturdy fangs and nails seemed to be able to crush it.

Whenever they attack, they make full use of their sturdy body to compensate with when they attack. In addition, they could freely fly in the air with the big wings growing on their backs.

With the ability to fight from the sky, it already gave the Gargoyle a huge advantage in a battle.

So, what do you think would happen between the fight with the Gargoyles?

It's true that it can attack from within the sky, which can be said to be a very hard to deal with.

.....However, I have items that I can use to fly in the air as well.

And it just so happened that I'm equipping it right now.

Yes, it is the "Ciel Sourie" that I'd obtained in the Dungeon of Power.

Name: Ciel Sourie

Agility: +25

Grade: Ultra Class

Attribute: Wind

Special Effect: 3% increase in moving speed

Airwalk

With the ability to walk around in the air, and has the performance of having 3% increase in movement speed, even if the opponents were Gargoyles, it will be equal in level.

Plus, I have 【Cut & Paste】 as well.

As usual, I will take away the skills of the Gargoyles and convert them to myself.

.....From the many battles I had so far, this will be effective against opponents such as the Gargoyles.

That's why.....Well.....Let's take away their skills first.

What seems to be the most dangerous skill is this 【Demon Eyes of Fear】.

【Demon Eyes of Fear】: On active towards any opponent at the desired timing. Subjects who is inflicted with this skill gets into a panic state and a chance to be stunned for several tens of seconds.

It feels like I've seen this effect somewhere before, and after thinking for a moment, it just looks like a degraded version of 【King's Intimidation】.

【King's Intimidation】 gives a perfect panic condition against level lower than your own, plus it can affect multiple opponents so I guess this isn't a much needed skill for me?

I guess it'll be better if I 【Paste】 it on my wives or Waffle or Kuu.

Well, no matter if it's a degraded version, a skill with the same ability as 【King's Intimidation】 is dangerous. When fighting multiple opponents like this time, if you're being affected by it from a blind spot, it can be said that it's fatal.

Anyways, if you're being affected by it, you will end up losing mobility for a few tens of seconds.

Which meant that you won't be able to use the Defense skills in the meantime.

Hence why, let's 【Cut】 this skill first.

However, the Race Skills are really a lot more troublesome as well.

....I'm really glad that my 【Appraisal・Total】 leveled up at the perfect time.

Otherwise, I wouldn't be able to confirm the Race skills, and capturing this dungeon would prove to be a difficult struggle.

Alright, let's take away it's 【Unique Magic・Thunder】, and might as well cut it's 【Sharp Nails】 ability as well.

.....Speaking of which, this would be my second Unique Magic.

Even though spatio-temporal is quite a special magic, I can expect something with 【Unique Magic・Thunder】 as well.

Alright, I'm done preparing.

Right now, I just have to defeat those 4 Gargoyles.

The Gargoyles who appeared in the [Story of Hero Alexandrite], surely magic attack won't work on it.

But, will they be the same as the book?.....Well, let's try.

I aimed at the Gargoyle with 【Range Magic・Wind Maxima】, and fired.

Winds slowly form from my hands, and the blade of the winds went straight to the Gargoyles.

[How is it!? Did I do it!]

Contrary to the fierce attack, it seems that it did no damage to the Gargoyles.

[.....As per what the story foretold.]

.....Then, I would have to strike it directly.

However, the Gargoyles were extremely angry after being hit by the wind magic.

The four of them came flying to me at once.

While observing the situation calmly, I equipped Lightning Edge on my right and the Steel Dagger on my left, and activated the physical strengthening skill.

Also, because it's 1 against 4, I did not forget to activate the Defense skills as well.

[Eat this as well!]

I used 【Demon Eyes of Impact】 on the 4 Gargoyles who were aiming at me. This is not a magical attack! And I would be able to shake the formation of these guys.

The Gargoyle at the front collapsed with a dry impulsive sound which stopped the three who were approaching from behind as well.

[Now's the time! ! !]

Despite losing its position, the momentum of them flying has not disappeared.

Then, I sliced its stone body in half with 【Martial Arts: Shark Glow】 from the side. I guess the momentum may have helped with it as well.

The Gargoyle who was in front made a tremendous banging sound before shattering.

.....Right now, there's one thing I have to be aware of.

Magical creatures such as Gargoyles or Golems will revive with time unless you destroy or isolate their cores.

So I quickly activated 【Awareness・L】 and immediately found the core.

[Found it!]

I then grabbed onto a spherical stone that emitted large amounts of magic on my hand, then quickly throw it into my time stopping storage bag. This is likely to be of good material for alchemy, so I did not want to destroy it but rather keep it isolated.

[While their formation is not ready! !]

I crushed the other Gargoyle once again with 【Martial Arts: Shark Glow】.

[With this I have 2 more!]

[.....Phew, I somehow managed to defeat them.]

I slashed all 4 of the Gargoyles with 【Martial Arts: Shark Glow】 and have collected myself 4 cores as well, I muttered as such.

.....Then, I caught hold of something.

Perhaps it was because of my journey from the start to the B3's boss.

There weren't any dropped items, but I've gotten the valuable magic life which is the Gargoyle's core.

In a sense, this might be the dropped item.

Even when I'd successfully defeated them, I feel like I'm forgetting something....It was that kind of feeling.

!!!

Right, where did Tales and co went! ?

Tracing back my thoughts.....it might be that they're still trapped from the mechanism of this level.

Plus, the Gargoyle existed when I arrived, which meant that they have not defeated the boss yet.

.....Then, there might be one possibility.

Perhaps, did Tales and his teammate lose to the Gargoyles?

Author's Note:

Did Tales and his teammates, the Tamers Ring, lose to the Gargoyle.

By losing.....In this context, it means that they're dead.

However, will Tales really lose that easily as he holds an incredibly strong tamed Black Spirit? Even with that kind of personality, he is still called one of the 3 big Clans out there, and the leader of the Clan to boot.

No matter how I look at it, I don't believe that Tales would be defeated by the Gargoyle and as a result, killed by it.

But then again, if I think about it, I have never met any acquaintances (In this case it's really just a few that I know of) that had died. The only ones that I can remember are my parents.

That's why, the fact that.....I haven't confirmed that they're dead, it's impossible to conclude it right now.

「When I was fighting the Gargoyles.....I didn't see any evidence.」

Looking around my surroundings, I tried to find any blood or any traces of things being destroyed.

.....But, as I glanced around my surroundings, I found no such luck.

Even still, I really wanted to find some sort of clue, so I went around the room slowly to find even anything.

「.....There really is nothing.」

Perhaps I was actually faster than them in finding the right route.

It's not certain just because I've defeated the boss of this floor, it's just my own selfish thought.

Still, no matter how much I tried to search for any traces of any battle, I still can't find it.

So I think that my theory of them not arriving here yet might be correct.

「Alright, as of right now let's head back to my wives. If I return late, they might get worried.」

Using 【Unique Magic・Spacetime】, I set the destination to the entrance of this floor back to where my family was.

.....However, I would soon regret my decision. Why did I not use 【Awareness・Large】 at that time.

If I would've used 【Awareness・Large】 at that time, no tragedy would've happened....was what I thought.

「Danna-sama!」

「Myne-kun!」

When my two wives saw me, they called out my name. Aah, they were worried about me.

「I'm sorry, both of you.....」

After apologizing to them, I explained what happened from the start.

Meeting with the Gargoyles, and defeating them, getting 4 of the mana stones.

.....Then, I also reported to them that I didn't meet with Tales's teammates, the 「Tamers Ring」 as well.

「.....It seems like, Danna-sama's thinking might be.....true?」

「However, Hime-sama.....Myne-kun just opened the correct door and moved forward, but it might be possible that Tales and his teammates might've found another way to get there as well?」

Right, what Aisha said does make sense.

Before I arrived at that room, I could open all the doors before finding the right way. But I can't believe that there's another correct route besides the one I took.

So, the only possible explanation is that Tales have fought with the Gargoyles and was defeated.

「Is there a possibility that they've defeated the Gargoyles and went ahead?」

.....The possibility is not zero.....I think.....

The interval between the re-emergence of a Gargoyle must be dreadfully short, because when I stepped into that room, all of the Gargoyles were new.

Hmm, thinking about the previous floors, I thought hard.

.....Incidentally the boss that was one level above us had not reappeared yet.

As expected, perhaps the mana in this dungeon has not accumulated enough to make a boss reappear yet. As long as there's that fact, it is unlikely that Tales and his teammates have already gone ahead.

Perhaps even Sylphy who suggested it might not believe this to be correct.

But it's good to have this as a possibility.

For now, let's just move onwards.....If we do so, we might know what happened to Tales.

Even such a guy is a Clan belonging to Augusta Kingdom. I would want to help if let's say he's struggling....But even after helping them, I got a feeling it's going to be even more troublesome.

「For now, should we continue? No matter how much we think, the answer will probably not appear.....」

「Aah, you're right. If we continued to discuss, I don't see us capturing the dungeon anytime soon.」

Sylphy showed her consent, and Aisha nodded.

Waffle and Kuu instead, wanted to move already but saw us waiting there, so they waited.

「Alright, follow me then! I'll guide everyone!」

「So this was where the Gargoyles were.」

Aisha looked around the room and said.

As expected, the Gargoyles didn't appear.

....Well, it's gonna be even more cumbersome if it did appear after defeating it an hour before.

Since there was at least a time lag between us and the Tamers Ring, we would have to confirm this tomorrow.

『Myne, there seems to be a door, over there!』

Waffle pointed at a place where there's no door.

However, if Waffle was the one who said it, there must be one.

I never doubted the words of my family, so I went towards the wall that seems to be empty.

Yes, as Waffle said, there was indeed a door.

Going through the invisible door, the room was about half the size of the Gargoyles room.

....Wait, maybe this is it? The reason why I didn't meet with Tales!?!

When I encountered the Gargoyles, Tales might've discovered this hidden door by chance and escaped.

「....Myne-kun, look over here.」

It seems that Aisha has found something, and I can feel the trembling in her voice.

I wonder what she'd discovered.

What Aisha found....was a tremendously large pool of blood spreading all over the floor.

And there are traces of something being dragged into the darkness.

This is a lot of blood....it's absolutely not from a single person.

There were several....no a considerable number of people's.....

As soon as we saw the blood, our nose were caught.....by a rusty iron smell mixed in with the blood.

『.....Onii-sama, this blood, is still warm!』

Eh?.....Which means, from the time when this blood was here....not much time has passed? No doubt, when I was fighting with the Gargoyles, this tragedy might've not occurred yet!?

「.....Danna-sama, let's move on. I don't have to say it, but let's proceed with caution.」

Sylphy says while she drew her Linus's Sword out from the sheath.

「.....Alright, I understand....Aisha, be behind Sylphy. In front of us would be Waffle, and I'll be at the rear.」

With Waffle having a high capability in sensing, we move forward with caution.

There was a stone monument in the boss room, but right now I can't afford to care about it.

As we followed the traces of blood that was dragged along.....there were stairs that continued down the depths of the floor.

TLN Note: A feelsgood chapter

「.....Should we go.」

Seeing that the bloody trail continued to lead down the staircase, I answered.

Everyone was....yes, even the usual mypace Waffle and Kuu, was moving down the stairs in caution and in silent.

Then, Sylphy, with her Linus • Sword.....and I with my Lightning Edge and Steel Dagger held on both of my hands, we proceeded with the mindset of always being in combat whenever necessary.

Aisha too had her bow hanging on her shoulder, and a dagger on her hand.

Though I wanted to say, as expected of Aisha with her 【Archery•Holy】, but in this narrow passage, it is hard for her to use her bow in this situation.

So when this kind of situation arises, she would prepare a dagger for such situation, and she is also well trained in using the dagger.

With such preparation in equipment and training, it is no wonder she was a former B Ranked Adventurer.

Now that I remember, my father didn't have the 【Dagger】 skill, but from what I remember, he could normally use the dagger. I guess for a hunter or an archer, having a short sword is basically like their second weapon.

「.....Well then, we've arrived at the Basement 4th floor....but what is going on with this floor!」

Sylphy saw a huge area right before her eyes, and said in pain.

I thought of it when we were on the basement 3rd floor....but so far I have never seen such structures in any of the other dungeons I've been to.

This fourth floor, can be said that the floor has changed drastically.....and it's the polar opposite of the previous floor.

.....No let me think about it, maybe the reason why the dungeon looks so weird is because a Demon came by and messed with the dungeon?

.....There's a scene right in front of my eyes.

And a vast scene that even the goal can't be seen, one, straight line, going from one end to the other.

The only thing that exists on this floor, is this passageway. There were nothing else besides this.

Maybe, there is a hidden door somewhere on this floor, similar to how we found the door on the basement third floor....

Just so you know, when we went behind, it just leads to a dead end.

It was just a straight passageway, moving us forward forever and ever.

And, on the bed of the passageway, the trail continues from the third floor, whoever's(...) blood was still being dragged into the abyss in front of us. It was as if the blood was inviting us to follow it to the end of the road.

「What do you think of this?」

「.....I have no idea.....however, it looks like it's inviting us to go on ahead.」

Sylphy asked, and Aisha answered.

Yeah, there is that possibility.

We won't know what's laying ahead of us, but what I know is that while I was defeating the Gargoyle, it took the chance to go.

If that happens, we will obviously be cautious of any enemies lurking around.

.....Which means, that this blood trail might outright be leading us into a trap.

In a way, this is just a prediction.

And obviously, it might be something too far fetched....

However, regardless of speculating the enemy, whatever it is, we must assume the worst out of it.

As such, thinking of it as inviting us to move onward, let us act carefully.

「Everyone, please be careful.」

After carefully observing our surroundings, checking if there's anything or anyone, we moved at a very slow pace.

After walking for approximately 50 minutes or so, we heard a strange sound from in front of us.

「That was!?!」

When I raised my voice, Waffle too 「Wafu!」 raised her voice.

『Myne! There's something, in front of us!!』

At the same time when Waffle raised his voice, I too used my 【Awareness・L】!

There, I sense a rather weak presence. And also, an ominously huge presence is there too.

That huge ominous presence....Reminded me of the powerful Orc・King that I faced before.

.....Then, a strange and weird feeling that I have never felt before...There were two of them.

「Everyone....be careful....it seems that there's an enemy similar to the Orc・King's level.」

When I said similar to the Orc▪King, it means that there's an enemy that is at a Disaster Grade.

No matter how much Sylphy and Aisha levels up, there is no chance to win in a proper fight.

.....I have to fight alone.

However, besides the Disaster Grade monster, that two other presence....I could also feel something bad from them.

「.....What, did you just say an Orc▪King?」

Sylphy had a frowning look as she heard at an unexpected name.

「I'm sure it's not the actual Orc▪King, but a similar opponent that is as strong as the Orc▪King.」

While looking straight ahead, I corrected Sylphy's misconception.

「.....A disaster grade monster, is what you're saying.....To be honest, to fight with that kind of monster might be too hard for both me and the Princess.」

Aisha then calmly analyzed the situation.

However, I haven't told anyone about the other thing that I'm worried as well.

「.....About that.....It isn't just the disaster grade monster. There's also two presence that I have never felt before as well.」

After telling it to the two of them, the both of them swallowed their saliva.

The two presence.....it might be....

「Gurururururuuuu! ! !」

Suddenly, there were howling birds echoing around us.....then we heard a groaning voice including a vicious sound, which interrupted our thoughts.

I'm sure the owner of that vicious sound.....is the disaster grade monster.

「....So....meone.....sa....ve.....me.....」

Then, I could hear the voice of the person further into the depths.

「Sylphy, Aisha....use your defence skill right now! Basically just concentrate on protecting yourselves! Waffle, Kuu and I would engage in battle!」

「.....Guess it can't be helped, you did ask us to escape when you were fighting with the Orc • King. But since then, we too have improved to somewhat protect ourselves as well.」

Sylphy shrugged her shoulders, then used her defence skills.

Aisha too understood and used her defensive skills.

「.....If it really looks bad, I might ask you guys to escape as well.」

I gripped Lightning Edge tightly, then ran ahead.

Behind me was Waffle and Kuu that was running/floating with me. Then further behind was Aisha and Sylphy that moved in caution as well.

Then, what flew in front of my eyes was——

A huge ass Chimera.

Name: Faithfulness • Chimera

LV: 96

Race: Magic Creature(Experimental body)

Gender: —

【Skill】

Unique Magic • Aurora

Unique Magic • Storm

Demon Eyes of Deadly Poison

【Ability】

Chewing

「.....This, thing.」

「What!? A Chimera.....」

The first time seeing such a huge monster unknowingly overwhelmed me.

「Myne-kun! ! !Over there! Hanging on the Chimera's mouth! ! !」

Aisha suddenly shouted, and as I looked at the mouth of the Chimera....
Eh? Being held on the mouth was.....a human body!?

「....H.....elp.....me.」

Again, I could hear that person's sound!

However, that sound that I kept hearing, was actually coming from beneath the Chimera's feet.

Then I slowly scanned from the Chimera's mouth to the feet.

As I was looking, over there....the right arm and left foot were torn, and the entire body was covered in blood, and the person was.....Tales.
